Protest May Be Made by State Department Against Tripartite Pact Between France, Britain and Italy.

To Protect Americans

Washington, Nov. 6.-While no protest has been made thus far by the State department against the tripartite agreement by France, Great Britain and Italy defining spheres of influence in Turkey, offi-cials stated today that this did not mean that no objection would be made against any provision viewed as contravening an open door pol-icy in Turkey. The open door prin-ciple was insisted upon by the United States in the Turkish settle-ment, it was said, when President Wilson was asked in March by the French government for his views on the tentative draft of the Turkish

The American note of March 24, said: "It is the understanding of the government of the United States that whatever territorial changes or arrangements may be made in the former Ottoman empire, such changes or arrangements will in no way place American citizens or corporations of any other country in a less favorable situation than the citizens or corporations of power party to both treaties."

Violation Charged. In some quarters it was contended that the second paragraph of article two of the tripartite agreement did violate this principle, in excluding from the particular spheres of in-fluence reserved for each of the three parties, the nationals of the other two contracting parties.

The paragraph in question reads! "The contracting powers undertake not to apply nor to make or support applications on behalf of their citizens for industrial or commercial concessions in an area in which the special interests of one of the said powers are recognized, except in cases where such power declines of its unable to take advantage of its special position."
