Twenty-Eight Rounds of Boxing on Program of Douglas Legion Entertainment-Reed to Meet Strayer.

FIGHT FACTS.

Monday evening at 8:30 clock. Place-City Auditorium. Main Event-"Kid" Schlaifer against Main Event-"Kid" Schlaifer against Main Event—"Kid" Schlaifer against Jack Leahy, welterweights, 10 rounds. Semi-Windup—Harry Reed against "Battling" Strayer, lightweights, eight rounds. Second Preliminary—"Young" Bruno against "Kid" Fleed, six rounds. First Preliminary — Jack Gates against Ray Stanner, four rounds. Referee—Tommy Ryan, Des Molnes.

By "WAG."

"Kid" Schlaiter, Omaha scrapper, and Jack Leahy, Winner, S. D., mauler, have come to the 5 o'clock whistle so far as their training is concerned. Little left for them to do now save kceping windpipes clean and as true as a willow whistle for the bout in the City Auditorium tomorrow night.

Schlaifer has worked hard for this bout, harder, indeed, than the clever Leahy, who promises to explode a Leahy, who promises to explode a very ambitious young scrapper from the South Side. Schlaifer must whip Leahy if he is to make for himself the matches which his manager has outlined for him this winter. It will not do to simply outpoint his oppo-nent's box of tricks.

Chance for Leahy.

Leahy has set the fashion with regard to Harry Reed-knocked him out as cold as an old-fashioned gin rickey in five rounds. Schlaifer has boxed Reed on three different oc-casions, but has yet to put the game little Lincoln lightweight to sleep on the canvas. The fact that Leahy sent Reed to dreamland in the middle of a bout has boosted his stock among local boxing fans and Schlaifer must do a little knocking out along those lines or suffer a fearful slump in the attraction market. This is Leahy's greatest oppor-tunity to score. Should he finish the Omaha welterweight during the early stages of the mill, then he is traveling right along the right road to good matches and more coin. But, should the Hebrew lad from the South Side win, then Omaha followers of the boxing game will be requesting the Legion to stage another

Well-Known Sporting Writer Says That Game Requires Legal Safeguards for Protecting of Sport.

New York, Nov. 6 .- (Special.)-Mr. Frederick G. Lieb, a well known sporting writer, says that the newly proposed board of control can do much for base ball. But even more. the game requires legal safeguards which will make fixing or throwing ball games a precarious business. The penalty should be made so drastic that even the base ball weakling will hestitate a long time when the sugared words of temptation are sugared words of temptation are whispered into his ears. The crooked trail followed by Hal Chase, formerly base ball's greatest first baseman, would end in a striped uniform if the game were adequately protected by the laws of the land. Chase Under Indictment. Chase now is under indictment by the Cook county grand jury in Chi-cago, but it is doubtful if a convic-tion can be brought agamst him. The National league had legal evi-dence of his guilt in 1918, yet all this could do was expulsion from the league. With base ball having such an in-fluence on our national life as to have President Harding advise labor to strive for production as Babe Ruth hits home tuns, it is fitting that base ball be protected by feder al statutes, Racing and pugilism art under supervision of state laws in such commonwealths where these sports are permitted; it, therefore, such commonwealths where these sports are permitted; it, therefore, would be nothing new to have the government take a parental interest n the national game. Nebraska Outplayed in Last Quarter. From this point the tide turned against Coach Schulte's warriors and they were consistently outplayed. The quarter ended with Nebraska in possession of the ball on the State 44-yard line. And here Charlie Way got into the game and from here on the story of the game is a story of Way. On his first play he skiried his own end for a 60-yard gain, taking the ball into Nebraska terri-tory. A forward pass falled, Haines falled and Killinger punted. Weller also punted to State's 43-yard line, where the ball was given again to Way. He started around Nebraska's left wing, wheeled suddenly and scurried 51 yards for a touchdown. Rauch kicked goal. The third and final touchdown was caused by Nebraska's sudden and ex-cusable concentration on Way. Nebraska was held for downs and State broke through for two successive first downs and Killinger plunged through left tackle for a touchdown, Rauch missed the goal. Carpentier tanned Beckett that night in one round and can do the same thing again. Carpentier is the class, tell you, and don't overlook him. He'll stand a chance with Dempsey or any other man he fights."

DUYING used cars in the dark is a thing of the past. Not only does the buyer of a used automobile want to know about the mechanical condition of a car, but he wants to know that the concern he buys from is permanent and responsible.

We are both permanent and responsible and our leadership in the sale of used cars has made it necessary, even during this dull period, to seek larger and better quarters.

Our new location at 2047 Farnam Street is not only large enough to properly display our cars, but arranged so that the cars can be inspected in every detail without fear of soiling clothes.

We have many fine cars on our floor. Some of them have been sold to us because the owners needed cash rather than because of dissatisfaction with the cars.

This is your opportunity to buy a used car at a price that is right. Come in and see our new location. Inspecting the cars obligates you in no way.
