

City Council to Ask Revision of Omaha Charter

Two Members of Body Will Be Named by Mayor to Assist Him in Preparing Proposed Changes.

Mayor Smith will appoint two members of the city council to cooperate with him in the preparation of city charter amendments, which will be submitted to the legislature during the winter.

The plan, which was agreed to at a conference held yesterday afternoon in the city council chamber, contemplates rewriting the entire city charter, eliminating "dead timber," adding essential features but making no radical changes.

Under a provision of the state constitutional amendments which were adopted last September, Omaha may obtain a home rule charter by voting to adopt any existing charter, which could be amended at any subsequent election.

Among the propositions tentatively outlined yesterday afternoon, for the charter revisions, was one offering by Commissioner Towl and relating to a working capital, or revolving fund, for public improvements. This would enable the city to pay contractors for work done without the necessity of issuing district improvement warrants bearing 7 per cent interest.

Another proposed revision provides that owners of abutting property shall pay the cost of paving boulevards, instead of paying for this class of improvements from the general fund.

Commissioner Ure, as superintendent of the department of accounts and finance, will request that the interest rate on municipal bonds shall be made more elastic, to meet bond market conditions.

Another proposed revision provides that owners of abutting property shall pay the cost of paving boulevards, instead of paying for this class of improvements from the general fund.

Mrs. F. H. Cole appeared before the conference to ask that civil service be considered in preparing the charter revisions.

Tells of Rescue From Bandit Gang

Dr. Shelton Speaks at Chamber of Commerce on Capture On Thibet Border.

Dr. A. L. Shelton, who gained international reputation for his medical missionary work in China, addressed a large audience in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Dr. Shelton has been engaged in administering to the sick in China and Thibet since 1904, being stationed on the Thibetan border and operating in a territory of over 1,000 miles. He is one of the few men who have visited the famous forbidden city, Lhasa, the capital of Thibet.

In speaking of his experiences, his listeners were spellbound as he related his capture by Chinese bandits, who held him for ransom. He was captured, he said, on January 3, 1920, while traveling in a caravan to Yunnan, where he expected to start his wife and daughters on a visit to the United States, while he made another visit to Lhasa. He was held for over two months, when government troops interceded for him and routed the bandits from a nearby village.

According to Dr. Shelton, I. W. W. organizations and brigades are more numerous in China than in the United States, and they are better organized for their depredations to the extent that they can carry on a carnival of crime for months and months before being dispersed, only to find them committing the same offenses in other regions.

The outlaws are composed mostly of deserters from the Chinese army. Dr. Shelton said that when he was rescued a score of other American missionaries, including women, who had been captured at other villages, were also given their freedom.

Demand for Cars Exceeds Supply, Rail-Chief Says

Senate Committee on Reconstruction Closes Hearing in Chicago and Departs For Omaha.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Railroad difficulties in providing transportation for building materials were recited today by C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, before the senate committee on reconstruction. President Markham declared there was a much greater demand for cars than the railroads could supply, but that each month since last March had shown an increased tonnage carried and that since July of this year the railroads had carried more tonnage than in any other like period in their history.

"We will now be able, I think, to transport all the building materials necessary for construction," Mr. Markham said. "But our ability will depend on our ability to extend facilities."

Edward Froehlich, representative of a Chicago mill work company, charged labor unions with restricting the governing body of labor unions from interfering with the installation of mill work made in their factories.

Disclaiming any responsibility for present building conditions, Thomas Kearney, president of the Chicago

Building Trades assembly, said he had no remedies to offer. He said wages of $10 a day were not high when it was considered that tradesmen worked an average of 200 days a year and in view of the high cost of living.

The committee, headed by Senator William B. Calder, closed its hearings here and departed for Omaha, where the investigation will be continued.

Welfare Board Urged In Box Butte County

Alliance, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The first step toward the organization of a permanent welfare body for Alliance and Box Butte counties has been taken here through the appointment of a committee of 30 citizens, as a provisional working unit, to carry out the work outlined by Dr. Theodore Hanson of Omaha, director of the Nebraska Hygiene and Welfare campaign, who conducted a three-day county institute here this week.

W. R. Pate, superintendent of city schools, was made chairman of the committee and two subcommittees were appointed to assist in the work. Dr. Hanson presented a strong program of welfare organization work and lectured to large audiences during the three-day meeting.

The provisional committee will appeal to the mayor and city council to enact a city ordinance creating a welfare department and employ a welfare worker to assume charge of the work for the city and county.

Worn Out In Mind and Body

Your child is quick to observe disturbances in your mental attitude or physical condition. And when he asks: "What's the matter, Daddy?" there's a tone of solemn anxiety in his little voice. The depression stamped upon you reflects intensely upon him because of his profound solicitude. He at once drops his playthings and rushes to your side, but his happy smile has disappeared and his buoyant spirits are gone—replaced by a countenance of worry and a bearing of hopelessness.

You owe it to the happiness and welfare of your family to keep trim in body and keen in intellect. You are the sun and the inspiration of their lives. Dark, threatening clouds hover over their heads the instant you show signs of being "out of sorts" or "under the weather." Don't imperil their future by neglecting your health.

Release for Women who Suffer

The multitude of American women who suffer terribly day after day and year after year from ills peculiar to their sex is almost beyond belief,—yet there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman, and often many, do not reside who have been restored to health from some of the worst forms of female ills, and often avoided operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

These Two Women Tell of Their Experience.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound."—LILLIAN THARP, 824 South 6th Street, Carrollton, Ky.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—MRS. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.
