

Robbery Suspect Caught in Bluffs

Three Negroes Held for Highway Assaults Committed in Omaha.

With the arrest of three negroes yesterday, police believe they have the men who are responsible for the three holdups and the assault on a watchman Wednesday night. John Nelson, Council Bluffs, arrested with blood on his coat, shirt and hands, is believed to be the negro who assaulted and robbed John Schroeder, Chicago Lumber Co. watchman at Fourteenth and Marcy streets, early yesterday morning. Schroeder is in a serious condition at Wise Memorial hospital. George Marshall was identified by D. H. Marks as the negro who held him up at Twenty-second and Biny streets. After getting $4, Marks was the target for two shots fired by the highwaymen. James Roberts was arrested by Council Bluffs police as he was boarding a train out of town. He answers the description of one of the holdup men.

Children! Santa Claus Is Coming Soon to Burgess-Nash Store

We just got a wireless from Santa Claus saying he will come to Burgess-Nash soon. The old fellow is getting forgetful, and he didn't say just when he'd get here, but we're looking for him on every train.

When he gets here he'll stay all day at the store to find out just what you want for Christmas.

Write him a letter telling just what presents you want, and be ready to bring it to the store to give him when he comes.

Maybe we can tell you tomorrow night just what day he'll get here. Look in the paper and see.
