Warring Base Ball Factions in Major Leagues Declare Peace

Judge Landis Appointed as Leagues' Leader

Representatives of 16 Clubs Abandon Idea of Civilian Tribunal Proposed by Lasker Plan.

· Chicago, Nov. 12.-The warring base ball factions in the major leagues today made peace, each side conceding certain points to the other in the battle over the reor-ganization of professional base ball

After a three hour session the representatives of the sixteen clubs voted unanimously to appoint Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis supreme dictator of the leagues' destinies, but did away with the civilian tribunal proposed by the Lasker plan, voting instead that Judge Landis should be a committee of one in complete charge of the administration of the leagues' af-

Judge Landis immediately accepted the position, but stipulated he would remain on the federal district bench and hold both positions. Judge Landis' salary as chairman of base ball will be $42,500 a year, and he will receive $7,500 a year as fedcral judge, giving him an annual stipend of $50,000. Originally he was offered $50,000 as base ball chairman, but it was reduced the amount he receives as judge. "Loyal Five" Agree.

The coming week winds up the first round of the Gate City league. The season has progressed far enough now to get a real line on the teams. But the more one tries to pick the winner the more difficult it becomes. Eight of the 10 teams are evenly matched, and the teams in seventh and eighth places are as safe a bet as the leaders. The individual race is also an interesting one; all of the leaders being bunched, and no one roller having an edge for the top position.
