Escapes From

His Leaving Several Months

Ago-Trip Made at Night

In Automobile.

Madison, Neb., Noy. 12 .- (Special Telegram.)-Charles Young, who Omaha physicians declare was afflicted with leprosy, has escaped from the Madison county farm where he was ordered held by the state board of health. The deepest mystery surrounds his escape which occurred early in July, and has been carefully kept from the public. Residents of Madison were indignant when they learned this week that he had escaped and that no attempt was being made to apprehend him and prevent his roaming at will with the loathsome disease. His present whereabouts is unknown,

Young left late at night with assistance from the cutside. Employes at the county farm say an automobile drove up to his isolated hut and he was bundled in and hurried Sheriff C. S. Smith denied any knowledge of the escape when questioned as did other county officers and members of the board of health.
