Holiday Visitor

MISS CECELIA CALLAGHAN

Although most tourists of the winter go to the south or the great southwest, there are some who journey from those sections to the mid-west. Miss Cecelia Callaghan of Los Angeles, a visitor in Council Bluffs, is one of those, having left her own beautiful home in sunny California to spend the holiday in this land of frost and snow. She is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. James S. McAtee.

165 of these dressmakers are willing to work for 3 cents a day—or Six dollars will engage one for you

Silks, laces and woolen goods can be cut and made into dainty and serviceable garments in half the time usually required if you have a

in the home. Likewise, the sewing and making of table and bed linen can be done far better and in much less time if you have an electric sewing machine to help you.

There is absolutely no work connected with the operation of an electric sewing machine—you simply guide the materials, and by a slight pressure of the foot, you regulate the speed at which you wish to sew.

The Electric Shop's Big Sale

is an advance holiday offer—one you should take advantage of. A practical dressmaker has been engaged to assist you in your sewing and if you will bring it to the Electric Shop, where, in a room which has been given over to sewing, you can operate an electric sewing machine and make up your garments. A factory representative will explain fully each and every part of the machine, so in ten minutes' time you will be enabled to sew on any and all classes of material to your entire satisfaction.

Have you noticed how sewing is regaining its old popularity? How a laborless machine like the Western Electric helps the cause along?

Each garment made on an Electric Sewing Machine means a decided saving in time and money—then, too, you can have more and better clothes for any and all occasions if you become your own dressmaker. Our advice to every thrifty housewife is to have an Electric Sewing Machine. See them in operation at the Electric Shop and have one sent to your home. It is not what one spends but what one saves that counts in the final analysis.
