

"Y" Fund Drive To Be Extended

Workers Vote Continuance of Campaign This Week; $33,922 Collected.

By vote of the workers in the $70,000 budget campaign of the Young Women's Christian association, scheduled to close tonight, the campaign will be extended for the remainder of the week. At yesterday's get-together luncheon the team workers reported a total of $29,827 for the past 24 hours, making the grand total $33,922.01.

Such women and girls who are in the habit of attending the regular Tuesday noon luncheon for business women, are invited to unite with the campaign team workers for luncheon today. Dr. Paul Cahoun, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, who was scheduled to address the business women's luncheon, will speak before the entire assembly.
