

Reavis Promises Assault Against Dealers in Grain

Growers of Middle West Say Manipulations Are Largely Responsible for Recent Drop in Prices.

Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Lead Wire. Washington, Nov. 17.—A united assault by midwest congressmen on the Chicago Board of Trade operators and on the Minneapolis millers at the opening of the present session of congress is promised by Congressman C. Frank Reavis of Nebraska, who reached Washington today.

The grain growers of the midwest, says Reavis, charge that market manipulations have had much to do with unreasonably depressing the price of wheat, corn and other grains while the millers have juggled the grain standardizations to buy from the growers at low standards and sell to the consumers at high standards. "Midwest congressmen will get together before the opening of congress," said Reavis, "and present a united front in demanding legislation that shall prohibit gambling on the grains and regulate dealings on the Chicago and other boards of trade, where grains are handled. We shall demand also a new federal system of grain standardization. We know that the Minneapolis millers have sold millions of barrels of flour represented as produced from No. 2 wheat, standard grade, more than could have been produced from No. 2 wheat purchased by them. They, in fact, bought the wheat from the farmers at a lower grade than No. 2 and paid for it a price less than for No. 2 in the market. We shall ask a system of grading that will enable the grower to grade his wheat before it goes to the miller, and penalties on the miller for misrepresenting the grade of wheat in the flour. Such legislation will protect both the wheat grower and the flour consumer."

Reavis said also that the midwest congressmen would present unitedly a demand on the treasury, farm bank board and federal reserve board that a more liberal construction be placed on the farm loan act to the end that the farmers may get financial treatment. He claimed that such a course by the government was necessary to enable the farmers to tide themselves over a present distressful situation.

Railroad Will Attempt To Reduce Damage Claims

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—An effort to reduce claims by $500,000 a year, was made in Fremont when prominent railroad men of the C. & N. W. met at a luncheon at Hotel Pathfinder. A campaign is in progress to make this reduction in view of the expenditures made by the road during the past year, the claims amounting to $3,500,000.

The plans are to hold an educational campaign and attempt to teach the men that the damage and destruction of freight in transit is unnecessary and that they should do all in their power to assist in abolishing this waste.

Advertising Man May Get Chair in Cabinet

W. F. THERKILDSON

Among men mentioned as cabinet possibilities under President-elect Harding's administration is W. F. Therkildson, a candidate for appointment as secretary of agriculture. Mr. Therkildson lives at Moorestown, N. J., where one of his two large farms is located. He is chief of the agricultural advertising division of N. W. Ayer & Son and has been a frequent visitor to Omaha. For 25 years Mr. Therkildson's family have been engaged in the seed and nursery business. For years he was general manager of the Burpee & Sons' seed house, managing 27 farms in various parts of the country. Mr. Therkildson is said to have over 8,000 individual endorsements for the headship of the agricultural department.

Capitol Architect To Receive Salary Of $25,000 a Year

Lincoln, Nov. 17.—(Special.)—B. G. Goodhue, New York architect, will receive approximately $25,000 a year for seven years in remuneration for his services in designing and supervising construction of the new Nebraska capitol. The fixed salary, rather than the 6 per cent commission of cost of construction, was decided upon at a meeting of the capitol commissioners held today at the governor's mansion at which time the two forms of contracts were discussed. Architect Goodhue and M. W. Folsom, Lincoln bankers, left last night for New York, following conclusion of the meeting.

Plattsmouth's Jail Habitué Deported

Plattsmouth, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—For the first time in more than four years the Cass county jail is deserted, as Sheriff Quinton has lost his oldest and most faithful boarder, Fritz Deitl, who was arrested in 1916 and given a short jail sentence on the charge of vagrancy. Pleased with the excellency of his surroundings, Fritz refused to be sent forth when his term expired, and was sent to the county poor farm. Here his shiftlessness soon put him in bad with the superintendent and resulted in his being returned to the county jail. Since then all efforts to get him to leave have proven futile except once when he was sent forth to battle for himself, and upon being out a few weeks was again picked up, as he had worn out his clothing and was an unfit object for the gaze of the public. Now the United States government has decided that as "Fritzie" was "made in Germany," back to Germany he shall go. Accordingly a representative of the immigration department came for him a few days ago and soon he will be deported from Ellis Island on a boat bound for his native land.

Burglars Ransack Store At Murray and Escape

Plattsmouth, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Breaking the glass in the front door, burglars gained entrance to the general store of Hiatt and Tutt at Murray at an early hour Sunday morning, ransacked the stock and carried such goods as they wanted through the rear doorway and into a waiting car, effecting their escape with ease. Investigation the following morning showed the rear door had been drilled in an effort to spring the catch, but heavy wooden bars prevented its giving away. The burglars then turned their attention to effecting an entrance through the front of the store.

Ord, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Contractors have finished laying 24 blocks of paving this season. Bitulithic brick were used. Plans are being completed for 80 additional blocks of paving next

100 Million Is Spent for Blue Sky Is Charge

Ex-Secretary of Farmers' Co-Operative Association Tells Delegates Here That They Are Poor Investors.

J. W. Shorthill of Omaha, former secretary of the Nebraska Farmers' Co-Operative Grain and Live Stock State association, told delegates attending the association's annual meeting here yesterday, that more than 100 million dollars was spent in this state recently in worthless stocks and other foolish ventures that we choose to call investments. Mr. Shorthill was commenting on the money situation as it affects the farmer, declaring that "we have already had too much credit, rather than too little." He added that there has been so much credit in Nebraska that "foolish ventures" were made "when we ought to have known better all the time and the bankers ought not to have shaved and cashed notes that we gave in the deals."

Need Credit Relocation.
"There is some need of a relocation of credit," he said, "but simply more credit will never help to cure our ills."
Mr. Shorthill urged the attending agriculturalists to preserve their elevator companies; that they encourage the organization of commission companies made up of farmers to operate in the Omaha and other grain markets, and that they provide themselves with ample storage on farms "to hold our surplus grain at home until it is needed in the markets."
The managers' and directors' sessions, meeting in the Castle and Pome, respectively, yesterday morning devoted its time to the discussion of general subjects of interest to the delegates.

Officer Is Absent.
F. M. Myers, national secretary of co-operative associations, was scheduled for an address on "terminal marketing" before the directors' session, but in his absence, Charles E. Eckert of Minneapolis, an elevator organizer for farmers, delivered a brief address.
The managers' meeting in the Castle organized a State Managers' association, to be associated with the Farmers Co-operative Grain and Live Stock association and at a special meeting last night approved by-laws and a constitution, which will be submitted.
A complimentary banquet to be given the delegates by the Omaha Grain Exchange, was served in the Hotel Rome last evening.

Iowa Farmers Will Use Own Judgment In Selling Products

Waterloo, Ia., Nov. 17.—That the farmers of Iowa would use their own judgment in disposing of the products of their farms seemed to be the general opinion of the agricultural men of the state upon leaving the meeting of farmers and bankers today. Bankers declared they had gone the limit in financing farmers and recommended the selling of farm products to help liquidate their obligations.
About 500 bankers and farmers attended the meeting held to seek some way to overcome present difficulties. B. H. Cunningham, secretary of the Farm Bureau federation, Ames, Ia., in an address quoted figures to show that it cost the Iowa farmer 75 cents to produce a bushel of oats and said the farmers were hauling it away for 40 cents. He said every bushel of corn cost $1 to produce, while the farmer was forced to sell for 60c. "These figures will show beyond doubt what will happen to the farmer who is paying high rental or the man who made a small payment on his farm recently purchased," he said. He advised the farmer to "sit tight" until "grain gets somewhere near the prime of production." He also stated Iowa farmers were willing to assume some of the loss but did not deem it their duty to shoulder the entire responsibility of bringing prices back to normal.

Body of Madison County Soldier Arrives in U. S.

Norfolk, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The body of Julius E. Graves, who died in the military service in France, has reached the United States and is expected to arrive in Norfolk for burial within the week. This will be the second soldier who died overseas to be buried here within the last month. Notice was received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Graves, 312 North Tenth street, that the body arrived in Hoboken, N. J., November 9, and was being held for orders for transportation to Norfolk.

Governor Orders Probe Into Case Of Ben Marshall

Parole of Negro Assailant of Women Halted Pending Investigation—Omaha Protests Cause Action.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Governor McKelvie issued orders this morning that Ben Marshall, 57, Omaha negro serving in the penitentiary for assault, shall not be released on parole until an investigation can be made into his case.
Appearance of Marshall's name on the list of 38 prisoners of the penitentiary being considered for parole drew forth a storm of protests from citizens of Omaha and District Judge Sears, who sentenced the man to two terms of 15 years each.
Marshall's parole has never been ordered; the governor declared. His name was on the list, merely in accordance with state statutes regarding the release of prisoners, he said. Eight prisoners were scheduled for release today. They are: George Alexander, one to seven years, larceny from the person, Douglas county, January 21, 1920. William Babington, one to seven years, attempted automobile stealing, Dodge county, November 3, 1919. Clarence Barris, one to five years, grand larceny, Douglas county, January 6, 1920. William Foster, one to 10 years, shooting with intent to kill, Box Butte county, October 11, 1919. Burglars and Thieves. William Forrester, one to 10 years, automobile stealing, Lancaster county, December 10, 1919. Earl Keller, one to 10 years, grand larceny, Scottsbluff county, September 19, 1919. J. C. Smith, one to 10 years, burglary, Richardson county, March 14, 1919. Roy Slack, one to 10 years, breaking and entering, Douglas county, February 21, 1919.

Two Original Ideas Made It Famous.

The Ultona The Ultona is a scientific creation which enables one to play all records with faithful regard for the requirements of each make. It is not in any sense a combination contrivance, but involves a fundamental principle of sound reproduction. Nor is the Ultona a complex mechanism. By a slight turn of the hand it is adapted to any make of record, instantly supplying the correct position on the record, the proper needle and diaphragm and the precise pressure or weight necessary to play that particular record.

The Tone Amplifier Is a vibrant tone chamber, constructed entirely of moulded hollywood, free from metal, providing the requisite resiliency that unfolds and projects true tone. Like a fine violin or the sounding board of a piano, it complies with the approved laws of acoustics.

Cabinet Types at $115, $150, $200, $285, $310 and $400.
