

Girl's Husband Is Jailed: Parents Long to Aid Her

But Lack of Funds Holds Grief-Stricken Couple Here, Unable to Go to Daughter and Her Baby.

In a modest little cottage out at 4332 Franklin street there's a mother longing to rush to the aid of her daughter and her tiny granddaughter.

But more than 1,000 long miles separate the two, and for financial reasons, the mother, Mrs. James W. Cragin, must wait here, hoping and praying for her daughter's welfare, but unable to offer a mother's comforts except by letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cragin received a distressed telegram Tuesday night from their young daughter, Ella, informing them her husband of but two years, Loren V. Graves, had been arrested for robbing the mails.

Spent Sleepless Night.

The night before they had received a long distance telephone call from Henderson, N. C. For a moment they actually heard the frenzied voice of Ella, but were unable to understand her. The connection was then lost and the parents spent a sleepless night, wondering what fate had befallen their dear one.

Dispatches from Henderson informed them yesterday morning Graves was caught with $17,000 in cash and $1,000 in Liberty bonds secreted in a spare tire on his automobile, and held by postal authorities.

They were surprised at the apparent dishonesty of their son-in-law, but thought only of their young daughter, recently the mother of a baby girl, far away among strange people.

Married at Y. M. C. A.

"We thought Loren Graves was honest, that he would make Ella the best kind of a husband," said Mrs. Cragin, stifling a sob. "He met Ella five years ago in Battle Creek, Ia."

"When we moved to Omaha he came here and secured employment with the American Express company. He entered the United States mail service on October 17, 1918, shortly after he and Ella were married at the Y. M. C. A."

"They live, apparently happy, in a little cottage at 6020 Binney street. They were near us and we rejoiced in the happiness of our daughter."

Wipes Away a Tear.

Then Loren was asked to be transferred to North Carolina. He was a southerner, and although we wanted our daughter near us we did not object to their going."

Mrs. Cragin paused to wipe a stray tear from her eyes and continued brokenly:

"I'm afraid my daughter's life is ruined. She wanted her father to come to her, but we telegraphed her he couldn't come. We are not wealthy, but we'll always be able to give Ella and her baby daughter a home. She knows that we'll raise the money somehow for her to come to us."

"Oh, how she must need me! But I can only stay here and pray she will come back to us."

Leads Butterfly Life.

Graves' ability to purchase expensive automobiles and to lead the butterfly life of the idle rich, despite his small salary, caused the suspicions of postal authorities, according to reports.

Investigations showed his father-in-law here had been giving him no money. Postal officials here had no evidence to indicate Graves' dishonesty while working at the Omaha federal building, where he was employed at a registered mail station, although "registers" had been missing from his station on several occasions.

Mr. Cragin, who is an employee of the Butler Bros. company, said he would do nothing to assist his son-in-law, but would "somehow raise money to bring his daughter home."

Will Give Initial Insight Into Double Life of Chicago Man

Chicago, Nov. 17.—For nine years Mrs. Alberta Neff believed she was the lawful wife of W. B. Neff, high-salaried manager of the Automobile Supply Co., who was killed a few days ago in an automobile crash at Bridgeport, Conn. Mrs. Neff caused his body to be cremated and the ashes laid away in a casket costing her $450.

Today his will was read and Mrs. Neff almost collapsed when the following clauses were read by the attorney:

"To Alberta Kyne, also known as Mrs. Alberta Neff, now residing in Chicago, the sum of $1,000."

"To my wife, Samantha Neff, last heard of in St. Louis in 1910, her dower rights, not to exceed one-third of my estate."

"To Miss Frances O'Herrin, now residing in Chicago, the balance of my estate, including all clothing, jewelry, papers, etc."

"I never dreamed he had another wife," said Mrs. Neff today. "I knew about this woman, Frances O'Herrin and if there is any way she can be punished I am going to see she gets what is coming to her."

Neff was a member of the Oak Park lodge of Elks, and was widely known and popular.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act normally. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.
