

Y. W. C. A. Must Collect $20,000 To Reach Quota

Total Contributions Now Exceed $50,000; Members of Jobbers' Association Free To Give Donations.

While the secret committee of the Jobbers' association has refused to endorse the $70,000 budget campaign of the Young Women's Christian association, this however, according to J. Clarke Coit, president, allows members of the former body to use their judgment in continuing any subscriptions that they have formerly given to the Y. W. C. A., or any similar organization.

It was previously stated that the Jobbers' association had lifted its ban prohibiting the solicitation of funds. This was a misinterpretation of the letter from the committee read at a meeting of team workers, in regard to the attitude taken by the Jobbers' association, as a ban never existed.

Total Now $50,330. With a report yesterday by team workers of a total of $4,368.66 for the past 24 hours, a grand total of $50,330.93 was reached last night. With three days of continuous work the canvassers hope to roll up $20,000 more by Tuesday night, when the campaign will close with a Thanksgiving offering.

The business and professional women's division at yesterday's luncheon reported $934.41; women's teams, $1,134.25; initial gifts, $2,400. The patrons of the cafeteria, through Mrs. Fullaway, director, have contributed $306 up to date.

Ringer Predicts Success. Dean Ringer, police commissioner, in a brief address at yesterday's luncheon spurred the workers on to added efforts, predicting that with continued work the goal of $70,000 will be reached by Tuesday night.

Rev. Arthur Atack, pastor of the Hanscom Park Methodist church, gave an inspirational talk. According to yesterday's report, Mrs. Sarah H. Joslyn has increased her contribution $200. Among the other large subscriptions reported yesterday were: Thomas Kilpatrick & Co., $250; T. H. Millard, $100; Mrs. H. Gifford, $100; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Noble, $50, and Dodds Lumber Co., $50.

Man and Wife Suspected of Parish Robbery Released

Mr. and Mrs. William Archibald, 1344 Arcadia avenue, were released yesterday following their arrest on a charge of robbing the parish house of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at 1344 Arcadia avenue. The Rev. Julius J. Hetwer and his housekeeper, Mabel Beal, 20, testified before Police Judge Fitzgerald that they saw the Archibalds coming out of the parish house on the night they claim a quantity of silk lingerie and a small amount of cash were stolen. Judge Fitzgerald held there was not sufficient evidence to hold the Archibalds.

The first national census of Japan was taken last month.

Roommate and Money Gone—

Common Sense Way to Treat Colds

A neglected cold at this time of year may develop into a serious cough or lung trouble. Father John's Medicine treats colds in the natural way, by giving each organ strength to resume its normal work. Remember, you are safe when you take Father John's Medicine, because this old-fashioned family medicine contains no alcohol or dangerous drugs. 60 years in use.
