Methodist Institution Rocked By Stories of Wild Boozing Party Indulged in by Students.

Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Chicago, Nov. 23.—The shattered romance of Mrs. Lillian Dombrow Aldrich ended in the courts Monday when she filed suit for divorce from "Lieutenant Commander" Glen T. Aldrich.

Miss Dombrow, one of the naval officer's two Chicago brides, alleges Aldrich deserted her after three days of married life, telling her he was "called away on government business."

Later, she says, he wrote her that he had married Miss Esther Carlson and asked that Miss Dombrow seek annulment of their marriage.

Shortly afterward it developed that Aldrich was not a lieutenant commander in the navy, but a former ensign, and it was charged he financed his two whirlwind courtships with forged checks amounting to $4,000.

Dinner for Five For Thanksgiving To Cost But $7.20

This Includes All Trimmings From Soup to Nuts—Some what Less Than Last Year.

A Thanksgiving dinner for five people may be prepared in Omaha for $7.20.

This estimate was made by the manager of a large downtown grocery department after much consideration, and provides for a turkey large enough to satisfy the most hearty appetites of five people, and all the trimmings from soup to nuts.

Beginning the meal with consommé, a sufficient quantity of which may be purchased for five people for 15 cents, the menu tabulated as follows:

A 10-pound turkey, at 45 cents a pound, $4.50; pint of oysters, 45 cents; three stocks of celery, 25 cents; can of peas, 20 cents; cranberries, 15 cents; cauliflower (baked whole with cream sauce), 25 cents; beef for five, 10 cents; butter for five, 15 cents; toasted cheese wafers, 20 cents; one pound of plum pudding, 50 cents; mince pie, 25 cents; three pounds of potatoes, 30 cents; total, $7.20.

The compiler of this list makes no mention of the need of "hard sauce" for the pudding. When this omission was mentioned he threw up his hands in despair.

"It can't be did," he wailed. "There ain't any more hard sauce—not for $8, at least."

Cocktails will also be scarce at Thanksgiving dinners this year, he predicted.

The general cost of a turkey day dinner will be somewhat less than last year, all things considered, however, according to this groceryman.

The couple were returning from a celebration of the congressman's election. The girl's mother is prostrated at Long Beach because of her daughter's death, and the father is understood to be seeking a pardon from the president on the ground that the mother needs his attention because of the girl's tragic death.

The club members have held meetings since the sales and have decided to continue the clubs.

Farmers Say They Have Rotten Deal

Nebraskan Got $46 for Six Cow Hides; Pays $16 for Shoes.

Lincoln, Nov. 23.—The feeling of at least one farmer in regard to the present price of farm products is clearly expressed in a letter to A. E. Anderson, federal statistician of the bureau of crop estimates. The letter accompanied the farmer's report of crop conditions on his farm in Gage county.

D. F. Bryson of near Adams, is the writer of the letter, which follows: "Doesn't it look as though the farmers and producers are getting a rotten deal? We feed the world, furnish the boys, raise everything, bought bonds and stamps and gave liberally to all calls. Now we sell our wheat for $1.80; our oats for 46 cents; our corn for 60 cents. We paid from $100 to $115 a month this season for help."

"I received $46 for six cow hides, and I am forced to pay from $12 to $16 for a pair of shoes.

"My wool has been stored in Lincoln since the sixteenth of last May, and I have not received a bid of any kind. We pay from $75 to $100 for a suit of clothes, just the same. "We paid $6 for seed potatoes, and
