rothers Turn Down Bequests Of $1,000,000 Each, Saying That All Men Deserve Equal Opportunities.

Boston, Nov. 24.—Hamilton Gar-land, like his brother, Charles, sons of "Jimmy" Garland, popular New York and Boston club man, who left several millions of dollars to his family, today frowned on $1,000,000. "All then deserve an equal oppor-tunity in life and so long as the laws of inheritance exist such a con-dition of equality cannot exist. "Simple happiness for myself and for my fellow man is my chief aim in life."

Universal Service today inter-viewed the brother of the 21-year-bld youth, who has aroused general in-terest by refusing to accept the money left by his father-Gives His Opinion.

Gives His Opinion.

"In my opinion," said Hamilton, who is very studious, but at the same time likes outdoor sports, "now rother was right when he refused is share. The money, I am inprimed, may now revert to me but when I reach my majority next rear I will do the same thing. No reason exists why I should take an advantage over my fellow man. As I have never done anything to deserve the money I shall not accept it."

Hamilton, who is an enthusiastic coarsman, is a student at Harvard. While impressed with the sincer-While impressed with the sincerity of the young man's idealistic views, one of the official custodians of the estate declared his regret that Charles does not see his way clear to accept the inheritance and dispose of it for humanitarian purposes. This the heir says would involve recognition of the right of the state to give to him, to which he declines to ac-

No one can talk to this young a without realizing that Christ ans something to him," said one the custodians of the estate. "He y be right and I may be wrong, at I wish, for his own sake, that had more experience with the orld before making the decision." Although Charles says his decion is final, there is nothing to preent his changing his opinion and cepting the fortune at any time tring his ife.

The official of the estate quoted ove said today that the $1,000,000 H be held in trust for Charles aghter, now I month old, and any ter children that may be born to n. In the event of no children viving Charles his share will be certed to his brothers, James A., and Hamilton pr their children.

Mrs. Marie Tudor Garland, mother of the young men, is now in Italy and contemplates returning to this country. She forfeited her right to her share of the Garland estate when she married Francis Cushing Green

A proud old woman sits in a sec-ond floor of the apartment house the corner of Beacon and Joy streets that bears the family name. Each piece of the antique furniture Each piece of the antique furniture that fills the rooms is a reminder of the days when that name was synonymous with leadership in New England. Her windows face the common, the busy, kaleidoscopic center of Boston's everyday life, suggestive of the changes the last 20 years have brought.

She is Mrs. Frederick Tudor, whose grandson, Charles Garland, insists on making his way in the world with his own hands and

Merchant Finds "$20 Gold Piece" Is Silver

Morria Lefkwitch, haberdasher, 2505 M street, was so elated with his first $20 gold piece he ran into the grocery store next door to show it

Joseph Sezedlowski, 65, 4208 South Fifty-sixth street, had just given him the gold piece for a $2 shirt. The haberdasher had given him $18 in change.

While showing off the gold piece Lefkwitch discovered it was a disguised silver dollar, police say. With a loud wail he gave chase to his customer and captured him at Twenty-sixth and O streets.

Sczedlowski has been turned over to the federal authorities.

Ford Employes To Get Bonus of Seven Millions

Checks Now Being Written-Distribution Starts January 1-Investment Certificates Pay 14 Per Cent.

Detroit, Mich. Nov. 24.—Bonus checks aggregating more than $7,000,000 for employes of the Ford Motor Co., are now being written and their distribution will start January 1, next, according to announcement this morning by Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor Co.

Mr. Ford also announced a forthcoming extra 3 per cent for the six months ending December 31, on Ford Investment certificates held by employes of the company. This, Mr. Ford said, is in addition to the guaranteed 6 per cent. He added that 8 per cent had been paid July 31, last, making a total of $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on the certificates for 1920.

Mr. Ford's statement was made, it was announced, to correct what

Mr. Ford's statement was made, it was announced, to correct what he said was an erroneous report of testimony by S. S. 'Marquis, director of the Ford educational department, before Judge Alschuler in Chicago yesterday to the effect that the recent reductions in the price of Ford cars had resulted in the bonus to employe; being practically cut off.

The statement that 6,000 men of the Detroit force had quit work within the last 90 days was correct, it was said at the executive offices of the company here, but the men had left voluntarily, and increased production, of the remaining employes had made it unnecessary to replace them.
