Virginia Lowe a Bride at Church Wedding

All Saints church was the scene of an attractive wedding Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Virginia Lowe became the bride of Everett Good of Kearney. She was given in mar-riage by her mother, Mrs. Harry Burt Patrick. Rev. Thomas Cas-ady performed the ceremony before the altar, which was banked with white chrysanthemums.

Miss Leona Kramer of Cleveland, who acted as bridesmaid, was gowned in robin's egg blue taffeta and georgette embroidered in silver, with hat to match, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink button chrysanthemums.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin and georgette com-bined with real filet face medallions. It was made round length and with short sleeves. Her tulle veil fell from a cap of tulle and white rib-bous to the hem of the skirt. A bouquet of Ophelia roses and white button chrysanthemums with a shower of sweetheart roses and swansonia completed her costume. Mrs. Patrick wore a gown of dark brown satin and a hat of gold cloth and mink fur. H. Wayne Good of Peru was best man and the ushers were Milton and Donald Blankenship and Clarence Howie, all of Peru, and Dr. Fran-cis Snider of Omaha.

Following the ceremony a recep-tion was held at the Patrick home. Assisting were Mrs. H. Wayne Good of Peru and Mrs. E. E. Moore and Miss Charlotte Reynolds. The bride's traveling suit was of suchow blue duve de laine embroidered in chenille, with which she wore a silver cloth and blue panne velvet hat. The couple will take a southern trip. After January 1 they will be at home in Peru.
