Italy Will Not Mix in Grecian Intervention

Rome, Nov. 25 .- If France and England decide to intervene in Greece, Italy must stand aloof in order to remain faithful to the prin ciple of self-determination, says an article published by the Messagero it being stated here that the article was "evidently inspired." It say-Italy must respect this principle, up on which her foreign policy is based and that, in addition, she is not among the powers which in 1832 be came protectors of that country. Therefore, she has no right to intervene in the dynastic affairs; or that nation.

"Italy cannot agree to interver tion." the article continues, "and cannot violate the will of Greece for the return of Constantine."

To Home Owners

We are thankful because you are eating dinner in your own home to-

You are happier, your family is happier, you are a more conscientious citizen, Omaha is a better city—all because you own your own home.

The value of your home is not affected by changing business conditions. We are mighty thankful for that, too.
