League Members Devote All Day to Committee Work

Distinct Lines of Cleavage Seem to Be Making Appearance as Small Countries Line Up.

Geneva, Nov. 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—No meeting of the assembly of the league of nations was held today in order to give the members full time for committee work, and it is possible there will be no session tomorrow. While some of the committees are reported to be progressing with unexpected speed, their decisions are thus far mostly for sure and slow solutions.

Committee meetings, again featured today's session of the assembly of the league of nations. operatives in the nation-wide search Several of these bodies, charged with examination of projects laid before the assembly and the preparation of reports, are believed to have nearly completed work, it is expected that debate on their conclusions may be-

In addition, several nations have taken decided views regarding the economic blockade, the international court and mandates. The proceedings of the assembly, which are at present really being carried on by the committees, may be considered as merely preliminary to its real work, which will begin when these committees submit reports and debate begins.

President Attacks British Oil Policy

Under the covenant provision the United States, if not a member of the league, might be deprived of equal treatment, even in the North surrendered to a Japanese mandate through to recovery.

The secretary of state argues that mandate powers accrue not from membership in the league, but from participation in the war on the cen-tral empires and asserts that the United States cannot concede the exclusion of itself or any other associated nation from discussion of the mandate terms,

It happens, however, that the Wil son covenant itself. provides that "the degree of authority, control or ly agreed upon by the members of the league, be explicitly defined in each case by the council." The British government is unable to ceive how any nation outside of the league gets a voice in the matter un der the ferms of this provision. Schools to Inaugurate

Special Banking System School children of Council Bluffs will be encouraged to start savings deposits in various banks by a special system of banking to be inaugurated January 1, according to Supt. Theodore Saam. Members of the school board and representatives of the seven banks of the city will cooperate in establishing the system. Printed forms or deposit blanks will be given each teacher and the children may deposit their savings in the school room. Parents of the individual student may select the bank in which his money is to be placed. The plan not only will encourage thrift, but will familiarize the students with banking practices

Thanksgiving Observed Throughout Washington

Washington, Nov. 25 .- Practical suspension of the nation's business marked the observance of Thanksgiving day in Washington today. The closing of all public offices and most of the private institutions and places of business gave the capital a holiday aspect, but there were no public functions. Most of the cab-inet officers followed the example of President Wilson-and spent the day quietly at home after attending church services. President Wilson planned to spend the morning on the south portico of the White House with a possible short drive in the afternoon. In the evening, with Mrs. Wilson, he will be the host to a few relatives at a turkey dinner. Mrs. Wilson arranged to attend religious services in the morning at St. Johns Episcopal church.

Skill, Experience and Care

This is our only secret

process

There is no secret process involved in the making of de luxe margarin. Neither is there any mechanical equipment by which the desired quality can be obtained.

The secret is experience plus exacting care-the capacity for taking infinite pains in every little thing.

Mr. Hoffman, the butter expert who supervises every detail in the production of Troco, learned this secret in 30 years of making and judging butter and teaching butter-making.

He knows that this alone puts desired sweetness and delicacy into such dainty products as butter and Troco. For Troco is simply butter churned from coconut fat instead of butter fat. It gets its flavor the same way. Mr. Hoffman was famous for the flavor of his butter. He puts this same
