

Nebraska Loses, 20 to 21---South Dakota Trims Creighton

Aerial Work Again Beats Schultz's Men

Washington State Uncorks Overhead Attack in Last Period and Cornhuskers Are Powerless.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Nebraska repeated its performance against Kansas two weeks ago today when it allowed the Washington State Cougars, snowed under by a 20-7 score, to get back and by aerial work win, 21 to 0.

Again this afternoon the Cornhusker captain was called upon to perform with his toe to tie the score and failed. It was a repetition of the Nebraska-Syracuse game on the same field three years ago when Captain Edison Shaw missed a goal and consequently Nebraska lost to the easteners, 10 to 9.

For the first three periods the game seemed to be almost a cinch for the Cornhuskers, although the statistics were almost even. Fred Dale, Nebraska's 200-pound fullback, opened the fireworks when he intercepted a forward pass and raced 81 yards for the first touchdown. Captain Day booted the goal and the score was 7 to 0.

Cougars Score Touchdown.

The Cougars came back but by steady consistent gains put the ball across the Nebraska goal. In their onslaught, the Washington State chief figure in this work, plugging the line consistently all the way. Sax kicked the goal and the score was tied.

Nebraska came around in the second period and got the best end of the ground gaining. On a triple pass, Newman to Swanson to Scherer, the latter scored. Swanson shot the pass from Washington State's 38-yard line over the goal to Scherer, who eluded the Cougar backs and touched the ball down. Day kicked the goal and the half was over with Nebraska ahead, 14 to 7.

The Cougars kicked off at the beginning of the third period. Nebraska took the ball down the field on straight foot ball, but lost it on downs on Washington State's two-yard line. Washington kicked off and the Cornhuskers again renewed their drive. A pass, Dale to Swanson, was responsible for a 17-yard gain. Hubka carried the ball over the four-yard line. Captain Day's attempt to kick goal was wide of the post.

Skadan Enters Game.

The Cornhuskers looked like they were going to make another touchdown. The Washington State coach realized that something must be done so substituted Skadan for Sax, just before the end of the period. This little right-handed quarter spelled defeat for the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska took the ball to Washington State's six-yard line and on the fourth down Newman shot a pass over the goal line to Swanson. The pass seemed good at first, but Skadan jumped in and broke the play up. Washington State took the ball and Skadan realizing that the time was short, opened up with aerial work.

A 38-yard pass from McIver to Skadan was responsible for a 38-yard gain and put the ball within striking distance. Line bucks by Gillis netted the Cougars another touchdown. Skadan kicked goal and the score was 20-14.

Washington's final score was made possible chiefly by a 20-yard pass from Jenn to Skadan, who was downed on Nebraska's six-yard line. Gillis made the score on a series of line bucks. Skadan's kick at goal was through and the score was 21-0.

The Cornhuskers tried desperately to score again, but every time they started to get away with some aerial stuff the Cougars would intercept a pass. The game ended with the ball in the middle of the field.

Cambridge Wins Over Commerce Team, 10 to 0

Cambridge, Neb., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—By scoring a touchdown and a drop-kick in the last quarter of its game with the Commerce High team of Omaha here this afternoon, the Cambridge High eleven won, 10 to 0, in one of the hardest foot ball contests ever staged in this section of Nebraska.

By virtue of its victory over the Omahaans this afternoon, the local eleven claims the Nebraska High school grid championship. The Cambridge eleven has yet to suffer defeat this season.

Both teams fought a plucky battle from start to finish. Soon after the start it appeared as if the game would end in a scoreless tie. The Commerce team attempted forward passes, trick plays, criss-crosses and everything else in the line of foot ball in order to win over the husky local aggregation, but without success.

Cambridge used straight foot ball, sprinkled now and then with wide end runs, kick plays and forward passes.

The game playing to a scoreless tie three periods, the local eleven came strong in the final quarter and by straight foot ball marched down the field to the 8-yard line where Rankin, Cambridge fullback, plowed through the Commerce team for the first touchdown of the game. Just before the local started their march down the gridiron, the Cambridge team had the ball on Commerce's 20-yard line. The local pilot called for a drop-kick. Ellingson, left end and booter, dropped back and kicked the oval between the uprights for the first fall of the game.

Ernie Johnson Signs to Play With White Sox

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Chicago, Nov. 25.—That the position of shortstop on the White Sox team will not be neglected next season was assured by the receipt today of the signed contract of Ernie Johnson, manager of the Salt Lake team of the Pacific Coast league, who has been obtained as part of the plan for repairing the South Side machine which was wrecked by the gamblers.

Manager of Salt Lake Club Signs Contract With the White Sox

Chicago, Nov. 25.—The signed contract of Ernie Johnson, manager of the Salt Lake team of the Pacific coast base ball league, was received here today by the Chicago American league team manager. Johnson will fill the shoes of "Swede" Risberg as short stop. He is among the eight players indicated by the Cook county grand jury for alleged complicity in the scandal of the 1919 world series.

Locals Close Season With 16 to 7 Defeat

Spectacular Runs by "Tip" Long and Dubel Feature Annual Grid Battle Between Rival Teams.

Creighton finished its foot ball season by taking a walk-off game from the University of South Dakota eleven at Creighton field yesterday afternoon by a score of 16 to 7. That about tells the story of a struggle that contained spectacular runs and hard fighting for the 3,000 or more grid fans who turned out Turkey day to witness the two rival eleven's clash in their annual battle.

It was the last game of the season for both teams and the 1920 schedule was more than a pleasant one for Creighton as far as victories is concerned. The Blue and White warriors tied one and won one game. Only played six games, Creighton tied Yankton, beat Simpson and lost to Des Moines college, Kansas Aggies, Marquette, Ames, Drake and the University of South Dakota.

The game yesterday was not a South Dakota walkover. The 16 points scored by the visitors represented two touchdowns scored in the third quarter and a drop kick from the 17-yard mark in the last period. The first Dakota score bobbed up soon after the start of the second half when Dubel raced 80-yards through the entire Creighton team for a touchdown after receiving the punt on his own 20-yard line.

Creighton's seven tallies came as a result of "Tip" Long's sensational 65-yard run in the second quarter for a touchdown. The little Blue and White skipper wiggled and squirmed his way through the South Dakota eleven until he planted the oval behind the goal line for the first marker of the game. He booted his goal.

Says "BUGS" Opera Opens

The opera clinic opened in New York Monday. Everybody who couldn't afford the price of a seat was there. The Horseshoe was loaded with birds with heads like nails. Caruso was in great form. He sang from all corners of his mouth. His voice was at least four yards above par on a bull market.

Among those present was Mrs. Cerise Smith-Johnson-Captain-Zouze-Brown-Gimples. She is a recent bride. No matter when you meet her, she is always a recent bride. Cerise seems to think that the marriage ceremony was written by the same man who invented barber chairs. It is held on to a husband for a year she thinks he is a good customer.

Caruso is studying the sign language in order to get an even break at next week's opera.

Cedar Chests Have Dropped in Price at Bowen's

The important question right now—what to select for a Christmas Gift—is in the minds of hundreds; a real Cedar Chest often answers that question.

You are aware of the fact that there is a great difference in Cheats, the wood it is made from, the workmanship, style, the service and satisfaction it will give. This is all assured if you get one of Bowen's with our positive guarantee with every chest.

Another and very important fact is the price. Our price tags bear no longer the old war prices, but the greatly reduced low ebb prices are in effect right now at Bowen's.—Advertisement.

Panthers and Pennsylvania Play Tie Game

Huge Crowd Witnesses Hard-Fought Contest on Muddy Field in Smoky City.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 25.—The Pennsylvania State college foot ball team, favored to win over the University of Pittsburgh, was held to a scoreless tie by the Panthers at Forbes field today. More than 25,000 persons, the largest crowd in the history of the field, witnessed the battle, which was a fight to a standstill from the start until its final whistle. Neither Pennsylvania State nor Pittsburgh have defeated this season.

Pitt threatened to score twice and only once did Pennsylvania advance to within striking distance of goal. In the first period, State played an open game, but Pitt resorted to straight foot ball to advance. The Panthers had the ball on the 8-yard line when the period ended. At the opening of the second half Davies tried for a field goal from placement, but the ball went wide. Late in the second period Davies, mainspring of the Pittsburgh machine, was injured and he gave way to Byers, who played a wonderful game at left half.

In the second period Killinger fumbled, Anderson recovering on the State 45-yard line for Pittsburgh. The Panthers then made three first downs on line plunges, but lost the ball on a forward pass fumble. Penn advanced to the Pitt 10-yard line in the last period, but on the fourth down with three to go, Way tackled for a 1-yard loss and the Panthers took the ball.

The field was a sea of mud and the backs found it hard to handle the slippery ball. A summary shows that Pitt made more first downs than State and that Davies and Byers out-kicked Hess, of Pennsylvania State. Way, Haines and Killinger starred for State, while Davies, Anderson and Byers played a fine brand of foot ball. The lineup:

Red and Blue Line Impregnable to Ithacans; Final Score 28 to 0.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Battling in a sea of mud, the University of Pennsylvania defeated Cornell today 28 to 0. A dreaching rain prevailed throughout the game, but failed to drive the crowd of approximately 3,000 from the stands.

Cornell was able to advance the ball past mid field into Philadelphia's territory but once during the entire game and presented a ragged defensive.

The red and blue line was impregnable and succeeded in blocking the three Cornell kicks.

Wex Ward, the midget quarter back, and Ward, the big tackle, were the outstanding lights of the Pennsylvania eleven. The work of Carey and Hay stood out for the Ithacans.

The first score came early in the first period, when, after a series of battering line plunges, Wray took a pass from Joe Straus and scampered 40 yards for a touchdown. Cornell held until late in the second period when several long gains brought the ball to the 5-yard line, where, after two unsuccessful tries at the line, Whitehill tossed a pass over the goal line to Wray for the second touchdown.

Mexicans Oppose President In His "Free Port" Program

Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 23.—Great opposition has developed in the Mexican congress to President Adolfo de la Huerta's decree establishing the three "free ports," Puerto Mexico, Salina Cruz and Guaymas.
