Oklahoma Outplays Drake in Last Game of Season for Both Schools, Winning By 44 to 7.

Des Moines, Nov. 26.—Oklahoma outplayed and outgeneraled Drake in foot ball here yesterday and by winning. 44 to 7, clinched its claims to the Missouri Valley championship.

For a good part of the time the visitors were on the defensive and repeatedly were forced to punt. Oklahoma also worked the forward pass frequently with success. It made one gain of 50 yards just before the close of the game in that way, and on the next down, on Drake's 2-yard line, sent White across for a touchdown. The long pass was made after two attempts had failed.

The first scoring was early in the first period, after an exchange of punts when Oklahoma drove the ball to the Drake 22-yard line and Da-vis kicked goal from there. Both sides lost ground frequently in at-tempting to gain for the remainder of the period.

In the second period after Oklahoma gained 15 yards by a pass, Hill made an additional 20-yards by way of right tackle and went across-the line. White kicked goal. Play was more or less even until near the close of the period when White intercepted a pass by Drake and was stopped on Drake's 23-yard line. A pass from White to Johnson was good for the next Okla-homa touchdown. White failed to homa touchdown. White failed to kick goal.

The third period opened with frequent line bucking and gains by Drake in that way. Oklahoma, however, by passes worked well into Drake territory and Haskell scored. White kicking goal. The period ended on Drake's 15-yard ling.

Oklahoma forced the playing in the fourth and Morrison soon made a tauchdown and in a few minutes.

Locals Close 1920 Grid Season With Easy Victory; Campbell Star of Game.

Central High school grid team ended its foot ball season Thursday by defeating St. Joseph Central High at Rourke park, 33 to 7, in a game featured by long runs, good kicking and many forward passes.

The Purple and White eleven took the offensive at the start and was never in danger. The first touch-down was made in two minutes after the starting whistle. The sec-ond followed in four more minutes. The Central backs carried the ball in fine style, making many yards on end runs. Campbell, especially, starred in this work. Mulligan's men did their avy work in the first quarter. St. Joseph braced in the second half and played good
