Lambert-Matters.

The marriage of Miss Jean Maters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Matters, and Otto Lambert, took place Wednesday evening at the Maters home. Pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms. Rev. Earl Moneymaker read the marriage lines before relatives and a few intimate friends. There were no attendants. The bride attended Brownell Hall and later was a student at the University of Omaha, where she specialized in art. She was simply gowned in a flesh-colored tricotee, combined with fillet lace. Her corsage bouquet was of pale pink roses and lilies of the valley, combined with pale green ostrich feathers. The ceremony was followed by an informal reception and supper. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert do not go on a trip for the present but they will reside at the Matters home.

Card Table Covers for Christmas

For three tables accommodating 12 players, purchase three yards of white Indian-head and cut it into one-yard squares. Make a one-inch hem. Take eight strips of narrow white tape about fourteen inches in length for each cover. Sew these strips eight inches from each corner. These serve to tie the cover to the table. Embroider each cover with the respective Roman numerals I, II, and III, in one corner, and in the opposite corner your initial or monogram. This embroidery is very attractive done in delft blue mercerized cotton. These sets launder well and make an ideal and inexpensive gift.—Good Housekeeping.

Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Let Time Decide.
Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a teacher 20 years of age, and considered good looking. About two years ago I became acquainted with a young man, 21 years of age, whom I learned to love. I was out with him about a year ago and since then have not heard from him. I go out with others, but I cannot care for any of them since I knew him. Somehow or other I got in touch with him and he made an appointment with me, but a few days before I was supposed to see him he wrote me, stating that he could not keep his appointment. Upon not hearing from him, a few weeks ago I dropped him a line, but have not received a reply. I am at a loss as to what step to take. R. G.

Put your mind on your work and don't make up romances about a man who really shows no signs of interest in you. If he doesn't care for you there is nothing you can do about it. If he does, he will eventually prove it by returning and making up for his strange treatment. Youth is always clearing that it will never get over things—but the greatest dramatist of all wrote truthfully: "Patience. What wound did ever heal but by degrees."

D. M. N.: The information you seek may be found at the library, or in almost any good American history. I would be glad to answer it for you, but I do not like to encourage a bad habit, and I do think it is a bad habit to ask questions when you can find the information yourself. Get acquainted with our fine library and write me again when I can help you.

Puzzled: Appropriate gifts for young men include books, stationery, leather goods, fancy calendars, handkerchiefs, fountain pen, gold or silver pencil and boxes of home-made sweets. For the latter, you could prepare a large box of home-made candies, stuffed dates, shelled nuts, etc., making it most attractive.

"A Friend": I am sending your letter to "Folly." Your good advice may help her.

Ambitious: I like your spirit. Your second letter to me makes me believe you could handle a business of your own. At least if you could get office rent without any expense, I believe you could make at least $75 a month. But, my dear, I still insist you are worth more than $75 a month. Get on one or two of the best employment bureaus in Omaha, and have a little talk with those at the head. Telephone me tomorrow (Saturday) if you read this in time.

Annella: When a young man gives you a gift, thank him, of course. It is all right to be necessary to exchange gifts, even though you are not engaged, but they should be modest and impersonal, like books, candy, flowers, etc. If you know the boy's family and have known him a long time, you might make it somewhat more personal, though I would not advise jewelry. A fountain pen, something in leather goods, a fancy calendar, stationery or linen handkerchiefs would do. You might buy the linen and embroider an initial in it yourself. If you do nice handwork, an electrical desk lamp is an appropriate gift for a student.

Winter Diet Tips.
Too often the winter diet is allowed to become one of the meat-bread-potato type, which does not give children all the things they need to make them grow and develop normally, and which is unsatisfactory for adults as well. It needs to be supplemented by plenty of milk, eggs and other vegetables besides potatoes.

RESINOL
The box is blue
Opal jar inside

Be sure to get real Resinol

If you want to get rid of eczema, pimples, or other distressing skin eruption, you will accept no "substitute" for Resinol. Preparations similar in name or appearance are not "just the same as Resinol." Although a few unscrupulous dealers may offer them as or for Resinol, they are often crudely made, of little healing power, and some may even be dangerous to use. Buy in the original blue package.

Resinol is never sold in bulk

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Make a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Resinol is a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Resinol is a family supply of really dependable cough medicine.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficulty breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with a cough and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds. There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to accept anything else. Guaranteed to accept anything else. Guaranteed to accept anything else.

Lou's Christmas Plum Pudding

Chop until fine one and one-half pounds each of currants and seeded raisins, one-half pound each of candied orange-peel and citron, and one pound of suet. Mix all together and add one pound of fine bread-crumbs (these should be stale but not dry), the yolks of eight eggs beaten until light, three-fourths of a grated nutmeg, one-fourth teaspoonful of ground cloves, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of salt, one and one-half cupfuls of dark brown sugar, two tablespoonfuls of cider, white grape-juice, or coffee, and last, the stiffly-beaten whites of eight eggs. Put the mixture in buttered bowls, cover with a floured cloth or parchment paper, tie down well, plunge into water which is boiling hard, and cook two and one-half hours. When used, steam two and one-half hours longer.—Good Housekeeping.

Helpful Hints

Thoroughly chilled bacon will slice very evenly.

Mincing chicken and macaroni makes an excellent dish.

Cheese dishes should be the chief of the meal at which they are served.

If potatoes are pricked with a fork before baking they will remain mealy.

Crusts of bread browned in the oven are most appetizing with cheese or fruit.

The cheaper cuts of meat contain just as much nourishment as sirloin steak.

A teaspoonful of lemon juice will help to make economical cuts of meat deliciously tender.

Chopped olives and walnuts mixed with a little sour cream makes a good filling for rye bread sandwiches.

Regulate Feeding.

Regularly in the times of feeding is of the greatest importance. It is a serious mistake to feed a baby every time he cries, for his stomach must have time for digestion and afterward time for rest. Digestive disturbances will frequently result from feeding too often. The baby should be fed very regularly during the daytime up to about 9 to 10 p. m. The intervals between feedings should be reckoned from the beginning of one feeding to the beginning of the next one.

In Austria women vote on the same terms as the men.

Twilight at Sea.

The twilight hours, like birds, flew by. Ten thousand stars were in the sky. For every wave, with dimpled face, that leaped upon the air, there caught its side in its embrace. And held it trembling there.—Annela B. Welby.
