

Judge Frees 21 Taken in Raid by Lone Policeman

Evidence of Gambling Was Offered; Court Releases Proprietor and Inmates Base Ball Headquarters.

"Billy" Fox, proprietor of the Base Ball headquarters, a cigar store, 411 South Fifteenth street, charged with keeping a disorderly house, and 23 men, charged with being inmates, arrested Sunday morning in a raid by Patrolman Anton P. Paulson, were released by Judge Judge James M. Fitzgerald when they were arraigned in police court Monday morning.

In spite of dice, cards, money and description of the padded tables, furnished by Paulson as evidence, the judge declared the evidence insufficient to prosecute.

Paulson engineered the raid early Sunday morning after he had met a man on the street who told him he had been "cleaned out" playing black jack at Base Ball headquarters.

Paulson entered the place, according to his testimony, followed the "bookie" to the basement, where he surprised the men playing cards. As he lined them up, preparatory to taking them to the police station, Paulson gathered up cards, dice and money as evidence.

The men denied they were gambling and Attorney Thomas Curran, exhibiting a pass and padlock, declared Paulson had forced his way into the building without a search warrant.

A stenographer took down the proceedings of the trial for Chief Eberstein. "I have had many complaints from this place," said Chief of Detectives Van Deusen, "and if necessary I'll keep a detective there 24 hours of the day to break up gambling."

Hearing on Lumber Rates to Omaha From Coast Dec. 14

Hearing of the complaint made by the traffic bureau of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce against rates on lumber from the Pacific northwest to Omaha has been set for December 14 by the Interstate Commerce commission.

The complaint charges the rates are unreasonable and unjustly discriminatory, exceeding those to St. Paul and Minneapolis. The reduction sought would cut lumber prices to Omaha consumers about $2 per 1,000 feet. Intervening petitions have been filed by lumber producing associations and commercial organizations of St. Paul, Kansas City and other Missouri river cities.

'Devil' Fights 'Memphis' For 'Squealing' on Him

It will be a long time before "Devil" Diggs will get another opportunity to "square things" with Joe Evans, alias "Memphis."

For "Devil" Diggs was arraigned before United States Commissioner Biehler yesterday charged with obstructing justice and was bound over to the next term of the federal court on a $5,000 bond.

"Devil" was charged with giving "Memphis" a black eye and heaping other verbal and physical indignities upon him when he learned "Memphis" had provided the government with information which led to his arrest on a charge of selling narcotics. Both are negroes.

"What's that charge, judge?" "Devil" inquired.

"Obstructing justice," was the reply.

"Why judge I was just dealing it out," "Devil" exclaimed.

"Well, we'll let the judge decide whether it was justice or injustice."

Needed Repairs on Home Win For Tenant Landlord Sues

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady, 65, 3321 Davenport street, testified in Judge Baldwin's division of municipal court yesterday, that there are holes in the floor of her house large enough to admit a human foot.

A jury rendered a verdict in her favor after hearing the evidence in connection with an eviction case brought by John R. Gift. Mrs. Cady testified that Gift demanded $95 per month for the eight-room house now occupied by her and that he refused to make repairs as agreed.

She asserted that the sewer and water pipes are defective, plaster broken and kitchen floor warped.

The defendant testified that she earns her living by keeping boarders.

Every Time the Clock Strikes Tuesday—Some Big Bargain Goes on Sale on the Main Floor of the New Burgess-Nash Store

"A Bargain an Hour" is the program at this great store Tuesday—not just a price reduction, but a great, big bargain that will make the people of Omaha long remember the opening of the new Burgess-Nash store building.

We planned nine "Hour Sales" for Monday, when the main floor of the new building was formally opened, so as to have a little "house warming" as it were. The really wonderful response to our announcement has led us to repeat the program on Tuesday, with a change in the merchandise offered, of course.

It is said that "time flies;" and merchandise certainly will fly also at Burgess-Nash Tuesday—for here are nine special items, offered for one hour each, at prices which will make you glad that Burgess-Nash are not only reducing the price levels of all merchandise, but are affording you special opportunities to buy many things at really astonishing prices.

No Telephone Orders—No Mail Orders No Exchanges—No C. O. D.'s.

ONE CENT SALE

Going With a Smash!

The seventh big "One-Cent Sale" of the Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., started at the three downtown stores as soon as the doors opened on Monday morning, and from all appearances will "beat" all former records.

This unique merchandising event hinges on the idea of selling one article for the regular price, and then another of the same kind for 1c. The plan was originated by the United Drug Co., of Boston, who twice a year send a list of articles on which an ample or sometimes over-production has been made, and then these items are offered to their stockholders and agents as "1c Sale Items."

To these products are added other goods that can be procured at such a reduced price as will make them available for this sale's plan. A few specimen items are given below.

- This sale lasts through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday of this week.
- 25c Rexall Tooth Paste, 2 for 26c
- 25c Nyal Laxacold, 2 for 26c
- 50c Abonita or Amorita Almond Benzoin and Cucumber Cream Lotion 2 for 51c
- 60c Harmony Cocoa Butter Cold Cream and Skin Food 2 for 61c
- 65c Bottle of 100 Aspirin Tablets, 2 for 66c
- 40c Imported Tooth Brushes in all approved shapes, 2 for 41c
- 20c and 25c Wool or Velour Powder Puffs, 2 for the price of one plus 1c

Hundreds of other items, including Talc, Face Powders, Tooth, Nail and Hair Brushes, Rubber Goods, Toilet Soaps, Candies, Stationery and various Perfumes and Medicinal Articles.
