"California Syrup of Figs" Child's Best Laxative

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is getting the best and most harmless medicine for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its fruity taste. Full directions on each bottle. You must get "California."

Resinol Keeps the little folks comfortable and happy

Don't neglect the little one's chafed skin or the patches of rash or eczema, for children are bound to scratch, and these minor troubles may result in stubborn sores. Resinol Ointment is widely recommended by doctors and nurses because it soothes and heals, and cannot harm the tender skin. Resinol Soap is ideal for the bath. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Ointment.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough remedy. It's easy and quick to prepare.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple, home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes. Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils. This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really soothing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Write for a free literature on Pinex or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Marriage Without Love. Dear Miss Fairfax: I have been going about steadily with a young man five years my senior. Recently he was called away on business and during his absence I became acquainted with another young man, who calls to see me. I have come to love him very dearly, but he only regards me as a friend. Yesterday the first man returned and asked me to marry him. I did not give him my answer yet, as I am greatly puzzled. What shall I do?

Are Movies Right. Of course you mustn't marry without love. But it is usually important not to let a mere infatuation come between you and the man for whom you must have felt some regard, else why do you not have gone about with him for so long? Too many of us want the unattainable merely because it is beyond our reach. If we could have our wish, if we could have our being out of our grasp might vanish.

Are Movies Right. Dear Miss Fairfax: We are two blond girls, aged 15 and 16, and very popular among the boys. Do you think it is right for us to go to picture shows, etc., with boys if we behave correctly? Many times we refuse fellows because our folks object. Do you think we are too young? DOUBTFUL.

The only thing wrong about your going to movies with boys is the fact that you are so young. There are better ways of spending your time.

S. F. N.: I don't blame any girl who wants a home of her own when she marries. It is a good sign. All the dreams she has had of marriage include that idea of her own little nest. Naturally you think your people are all right, but your letter shows me that you do not like her mother very well. That's just the way it goes. Naturally she trusts her own mother, but does not care so much for your people. Keep family relations peaceable if it is possible, but don't try living together.

Brown-Eyed Girl: We all pay the penalty for our mistakes. If you like the first man, try to treat him with more consideration when he comes your way again, which he will do if he really cares for you. Persian women are generally short and stout.

Much mournful pictorial musical and literary sentiment has been expended upon the theme of the vacant chair, but anger rather than loneliness sways the mind of the hostess who, because of the inexcusable rudeness or absent-mindedness of a guest who had accepted her invitation is confronted with a vacant chair and an unattached dinner partner. Although, if all are present, dinner is served promptly, it is customary to wait a few minutes for a belated guest. When he does not put in an appearance, then the dinner proceeds without him, the earlier courses served at his place on the supposition that he will arrive with apologies for accidental delay. Women seldom make these absent-minded blunders, but men have been known to arrive the evening after a dinner party, or even a week later, arrayed for the feast, and dismayed to discover that their prospective host and hostess are dining out that night. Every one who receives and accepts invitations of any sort should keep a calendar of engagements.
