

Vernon Sandwall Leads 600 Kids in Drawing Contest

Omaha Boy Wins Six Box Seats for Best Reproduction of the Katzenjammer Kids.

Vernon Sandwall, 816 North Thirty-fourth street, won first prize in The Bee's Katzenjammer Kids drawing contest. Vernon is entitled to six box seats at the Katzenjammer Kids show at the Brandeis Thursday night.

There were over 600 entrants in the contest and The Bee's staff artist, Doane Powell, had a hard time picking the winners.

Ten youngsters, who ranked next best after Vernon Sandwall, won two seats each for the Thursday night show and 50 others won a single seat.

Winners may call at The Bee editorial office at any time between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. today to receive their tickets.

Assistant Boy Scout Executive Resigns; Will Return Home

F. W. Ewing, assistant executive of the Boy Scouts of Omaha, announced yesterday that he had tendered his resignation to take effect December 10. Mr. Ewing will go to his home at Springfield, Ohio, for a vacation. Mr. Ewing has been connected with Boy Scout work for over a year. He came to Omaha last May, and has filled the position of assistant chief executive since that time. Mr. Ewing's resignation follows that of G. M. Hoyt, chief executive, who has resigned to take a post graduate course at the University of Chicago. Mr. Ewing's successor has not been named.
