Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Willie Jackson tried Monday night at the opening of the Manhattan Athletic club, to defeat Johnny Dundee, a brace of judges and a duly appointed referce, but the best that he could get out of the jumble was a draw. How in the name of fairness a group of officials/sitting in judgment on a contest like the Jackson-Dundee wrangle could not find a winner is most difficult to understand.

Jackson was out in front nearly the entire distance and seemed to have won by a mile at the end. However, the officials disagreed with the majority of the spectators and gave it a draw.

The howl that followed could be heard in China but it had to go and Jackson suffered a rank injustice. Chleago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Life a Tragedy, Says Princess In Divorce Suit

Most Beautiful Red Cross Nurse Accepts Husband's Court Proceedings as Part Of Troubled Career.

By Universal Service.

Montreal, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Wallace Schutz, formerly the Princes. Troubetsky of Russia, appeared to be reconciled today to the belief that all life is just a tragedy. She suit as another event in her wa torn and international career.

The former princess, who was nurse in France during the war, appeared frail and trouble worn today. She had just come from a month's stay in the Royal Victorian hospital here. She is seeking quiet and obscurity at the home of Mrs. William Owens, former wife of a Canadian senator. She is recovering from a nervous breakdown.

"I married Mr. Schutz because loved him and because he said I was the center of his ambitions," she said today. "Now that illusion is shattered. I shall not fight the divorce. All life is a tragedy and who knows that I will be here long—who cares?" Her gestures matched in drama the nothers of her matched in drama the pathos of her words.

Mrs. Schutz apparently believes that her husband could find some other way out of the present triangle since they married under the conviction that her first husband Capt. Victor A. Turin, was dead. But she does not discuss that. She lets it go as another shattered dream, "But," she adds, "until the divorce is granted I will still by Mrs. Wallace S. Schutz.

"When the great revolution came in Russia," she said, "I saw my relatives massacred, my friends murdered and all because they were aristocrats. I came to the United States regarding it as the one place on earth where some measure of happiness and useful endeavor awaited me. My work in the naval hospital in Washington was much praised and I am happy because I was useful.

"Then came Captain Schutz. I grew to love him. He said I was the center of all his ambitions. pelieved him and I married him and now, well, you know. His divorce will not be opposed. I may not be here long anyway."

No one has been able yet to definitely locate Captain Turin, who has returned ghost-like from Verdun to mar the romance of the Milwaukee clubman and his royal bride. He is reported to be living in New York
