

Funeral Held for Rejected Suitor Who Shot Woman

Seriously Wounded Victim of Cabaret Tragedy Will Be Taken Back to Oskaloosa Upon Recovery.

While Mrs. Nina Dixon Weddington, 28, hovered between life and death at the Wise Memorial hospital, as the result of a bullet wound received at the Monarch garden cabaret Monday night when William Barr, rejected lover, shot her and then committed suicide, funeral services for the man were conducted yesterday at the Falconer and Stack funeral home by Rev. C. W. Savidge. "This will be a sad Thursday for Nina," one of those waiting for the services to begin remarked. "Yes, it will," replied M. D. Gilchrist, wealthy hardware dealer of Oskaloosa and an uncle of Barr. "I'm sorry I told her the time of the services." In the small group of friends and relatives at the funeral were C. Q. Barr, father of William Barr; E. F. Raines, stepfather of Mrs. Weddington, and M. D. Gilchrist, uncle of Barr. All are from Oskaloosa, Ia. Barr's mother is in California and was unable to be present. Mrs. Raines, mother of Mrs. Weddington, who was prostrated when she heard of the attempt on her daughter's life, was too ill to accompany her husband to Omaha. "This has been a sad affair and a severe shock to us all," Mr. Raines said yesterday. "It is the outcome of a love affair started a year ago when Barr boarded at my home while working as an automobile mechanic at Oskaloosa. It was then he met my stepdaughter. They had not been childhood sweethearts as was previously stated. "Wounded Woman Recovering." As soon as Nina is able to be removed she will be taken back to Oskaloosa, where she will be given a good home. "I'm tired of this butterfly life," Nina told me when I visited her at the hospital. "I'm coming home to live quietly. If Will hadn't shot me I would have been home now." Hospital authorities said yesterday Mrs. Weddington was slowly recovering and that she could be taken home in two weeks if her wounds do not develop complications. Jimmie Cosgrove Taken as Booze Runner at Minot, S. "I Recommend It for Nutrition"

A food talk by A. E. Hoffman

Snowy coconut fat is inviting, appetizing, very digestible and highly nutritious. It is the basis of Troco.

It is churned with pure, twice-pasteurized milk, from which it gets the sweet, delicate butter flavor.

This combination of two of Nature's food standbys results in a food of highest value.

I recommend it for nutrition as well as flavor.

I learned to make Troco by making butter for 30 years. I have made and judged butter and taught butter making at leading dairy schools.

Since Troco is churned like butter, with tasteless, neutral coconut fat replacing butter fat, this 30 years has taught me how to perfect Troco, and give it the sweet deliciousness which makes a dainty dairy product the most appreciated of all foods.

You will find Troco at leading dealers who naturally feature the best. It may cost a few cents more than other brands, just as fancy butter always commands a premium.

Worn Out In Mind and Body

Your child is quick to observe disturbances in your mental attitude or physical condition. And when he asks: "What's the matter, Daddy?" there's a tone of solemn anxiety in his little voice. The depression stamped upon you reflects intensely upon him because of his profound solicitude. He at once drops his playthings and rushes to your side, but his happy smile has disappeared and his buoyant spirits are gone—replaced by a countenance of worry and a bearing of hopelessness.

You owe it to the happiness and welfare of your family to keep trim in body and keen in intellect. You are the sin and the inspiration of their lives. Dark, dreary, clouding hours over their heads the instant you show signs of being "out of sorts" or "under the weather." Don't imperil their future by neglecting your health.
