Returns to Former Home

Mrs. Charles Brainerd with her daughter, Elizabeth Ann, and son, Jackson Wright, arrived about 10 days ago to join Mr. Brainerd, who came during the summer from Iowa City to locate in Council Bluffs. They will reside in their new home on Lawton terrace.

Mrs. Brainerd, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Wright, lived in Council Bluffs until seven years ago when her marriage took her first to Waterloo and later to Iowa City. She was a popular member of the younger set, and will be a charming acquisition to Council Bluffs society.

Keep Children Fit

If a child is below its proper weight after it reaches the age of 12, the chances are much against its ever becoming normal, child specialists say; yet several million children—some put the number at 5,000,000—are below weight today.

Recent surveys made in different parts of the United States, both in the city and in the country, disclose the fact that 10 to 30 per cent of the school children in each community surveyed weigh at least 10 per cent less than they should.

Epidemics find these underweight children easy victims, and large numbers die from contagious diseases each year that might have lived if their bodies had been in normal condition when they were exposed to the contagion.

Rest Tips.

There is no doubt that most women should, at least five times every week, lie in bed an hour before midnight, physicians say, and should not make a practice of being out of bed after midnight. For the average woman eight hours is usually sufficient, but some women can retain good health on an amount of sleep which would mean death to others.

Cheese Cake

In answer to a request from one of our readers, cheese cake may be made by the following very excellent recipe: Scald one cup of sweet milk and one cup of sour and then strain through a cheese cloth. To curd this add the yolks of four eggs which have been beaten a little, one cup of sugar, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and the juice and grated rind of one lemon. Line the pan, or patty pans, with paste and fill with the above mixture; then sprinkle with a quarter of a cup of blanched almonds. Bake this until the mixture is firm to the touch.

Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

J. H.—Men always enjoy receiving linen handkerchiefs or gloves for Christmas gifts. Fine handkerchiefs now-a-days, with linen so high, make splendid gifts appreciated more than anything else. The fancy handkerchiefs, all girls make now, would be excellent for your friend. Why do you not get the linen and make them yourself?

Hopeful—Your case is very much like many others. We receive letters from people every day who are much worse off than you are. As long as you and your children have good health, you are rich. You can very easily place your four children in the orphanage, where they will be well cared for always. Offer to pay a little for them and as long as Heaven has given you your health, get busy and work like everybody else in the world has to.

Eighteen Years Old—Do not go against your mother's wishes. She is your best friend and will care for you when this man will be going with somebody else. Why don't you ask your mother to let your friend come up to your home and meet your mother, then if he is a nice fellow your mother will look differently on his attention. You are still too young to go against your mother's wish.

Dear Miss Fairfax: You have helped so many that I am coming to you for some advice for myself. I am a stenographer. The man I love is a diamond dealer. It is necessary to see a diamond before purchasing it. The C. B. Brown company are excellent. By all means

work for is always forcing his attentions on me. He is married to a sweet little girl and I have spoken to him many times, but he does not seem to mind it. I cannot afford to lose my position for I am taking care of my mother. It seems as if I am the only girl that has worked for him and been treated that way. Waiting for an answer. B. E.

B. E.—Since you are the only girl that has ever treated in this way, some of the fault must lie with you. Any girl or woman who wishes can stop a man forcing attentions on her. Be dignified always, and simply tell him in a very few words, but kindly, that he must treat you with more dignity. If this will do no good, then get another place without him knowing anything about it, and leave without notice.

If you are a good stenographer, as you say you are, then there are many places you can get work.

Dimples—Write your story on white paper and have it typewritten. No one ever writes to a magazine to see if they want your story. Simply send story to the magazine. You may get the address of all magazines in the city library. They are usually found on the first or inside page. It is difficult to tell what magazine might buy your story. "No" is a negation, "know" denotes knowledge.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I would like your advice for the following: Do you think it is all right to give a boy friend of about a year's acquaintance a pair of silk socks as a Christmas present or a pair of cuff links with his initials? Which do you think is better of the two? I remain, "Anxious May."

Cuff links would be better, but it depends on how good friends you are. If you just see each other occasionally and he has done nothing for you then a Christmas card is all you should send such friends.

Anxious to Learn—A splendid after the show lunch is a clubhouse sandwich, chicken salad or toasted cheese sandwich and coffee.
