PITY the poor working girl! The holiday season is almost upon us with its numberless social events, great and small; parties, informal and formal; affairs both day and night.

One girl has applied for a vacation from December 10 until January 2 except one, and she will probably have a "bid" for that lone evening within the next day or two.

"I know I'll just be dead before Christmas, but I wouldn't miss one single party even if my funeral is the final of the season's Yuletide season," confided one.

Among the well known girls who have positions in business offices are Phyllis Waterman, Winifred Brandt, Margaretta Grimmel, Elizabeth Ringwalt and Helen Walker.

James Weber Linn, novelist, essayist and magazine writer, will lecture before the Omaha Society of Fine Arts Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the ball room of the Fontaine.

Mr. Linn has been teaching at the University of Chicago for 22 years; incidentally writing two novels, various short stories, and of recent years principally essays for the New Republic and similar magazines.

His parents were John M. and Mary C. Addams, and he is a nephew of Jane Addams of Hull House fame, Chicago. He is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi club, Quadrangle City university, Olympia Fields.

One of his most successful novels is "The Second Generation," and he also wrote "The Chameleon." The lecture is open to the public.

Returns for the holidays. Mrs. Robert Storz of Brighton, Colo., arrived in Omaha Tuesday to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Puls announce the birth of a son on Monday at Stewart hospital.

Miss Marian Mason of Long Pine, Neb., was the week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Stroud and grandson, Bobbie Hamilton, are spending the week in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton R. Hamilton have taken a house at 521 North Twenty-fourth street and will take possession after January 1.

E. O. Ames returned Saturday from California where he spent a short time with Mrs. Ames. Mrs. Ames is now at the Hotel Claremont, in Oakland.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Mason and children, Harry, Jr., and Robert, of Leigh, Neb., will be the holiday guests of Dr. Mason's mother, Mrs. L. B. Mason.

Stopping at the Hotel McAlpin, New York City, during the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Pilegling of Omaha.

Mrs. D. P. Singles and son, Perry, leave the last of the week for an eastern trip including New York City, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

What's What

"Out west," when the present scribe was in short frocks and ringlets, every real American school girl prided herself on her ability to get on and off a moving car, "just like a boy."

The closed-door system of today forbids that perhaps foolhardy form of gymnastics. Nevertheless, the unusual accomplishment saved the aforesaid p. s. from serious injury, if not from death, in a trolley accident only a few years ago.

To alight from a moving car, it was necessary to face forward to grasp the front bar with the left hand, and to run with the car a few steps after touching ground; in fact, momentum carried one forward involuntarily. Even now, when alighting from a temporarily motionless car, the first move still holds good—to face front, to use the left hand grasp, and to step forward.

The illustration shows the wrong way; the woman is using the right-hand grasp and is facing backward, directly in the path of oncoming vehicles. Should the car happen to make a sudden start, she would be thrown to the ground.

Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Dear Miss Fairfax: As we are constant readers of your column and have observed the good advice you give to others we are also coming. We would like to know what it means when a bride gives another lady her key? Is it proper for a young girl to keep company with more than one young man at a time, and receive valuable gifts from one of the young men, whom she cares the least for? Thanking you in advance, we are TWO CHUMS.

Two Chums—A good luck symbol as trifling as throwing a bouquet at a wedding. You may have any number of men callers you like, the more the better. Safety lies in numbers. Receive no valuable gifts from any man until you are engaged to him. It is decided improper.

How Much Income? Dear Miss Fairfax: Am I love with a young girl whom I have been going with several years. Would like very much to get married, but do not know about what salary is necessary to properly support a very domestic little wife. Could you advise me how much of a salary I need? W. F. P. J.

This problem needs two heads—yours and that of the very domestic little girl in whose society you've been for the last four years. If you don't feel sufficiently close to her to discuss the matter, which will so intimately effect you both, then you aren't in perfect enough harmony to find happiness together. You two know what you're accustomed to, what you require, and what you can do without. Figure it out for yourselves. You ought to enjoy doing it unless you're weak enough to let false pride come between you and the truth.

Hugs the Arch. We do not believe in superlatives, but we know of no shoe which fits up under the arch like the Cantilever Shoe.

This close-fitting instep provides a wonderful, natural support to "tired arches." You may not have a case of weak arches requiring medical attention; but have you not noticed how tired your arches get from long walking or long standing?

That is due probably to the shoes you are wearing—for Nature endowed your foot with muscles and ligaments to hold the arch bones in place. Rigid shank shoes (like a plaster cast) have prevented those muscles from exercising, and they are gradually losing strength from disuse. Perhaps metal appliances have stopped your arch muscles from natural action. Your leg muscles would get the same way if you always used crutches.

The nearest approach to going unshod (which is Nature absolute) and at the same time being in good style, is to wear the Cantilever Shoe which flexes as the foot bends and which covers the foot snugly everywhere without restraint anywhere.

These good-looking shoes so comfortable and conducive to graceful poise and efficiency are to be had in a variety of colors, in high shoes and oxfords, sizes 2 to 11, width AAAA to EE. Send for booklet.
