Campaign Opposed

Fremont, Neb., Dec. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—County Attorney the exception of about $17,000, which is not considered good and will also pay $5,000 for the building and fixtures of the Standard Bridge Co. of Omaha against Dodge county, requesting a restraining order on Attorney W. J. Courtright of this city from publishing articles in the Fremont Tribune, which he alleges is from publishing articles in the Fremont Tribune, which he alleges is unfair and illegal propaganda, because it prejudices the people of this county. The Standard Bridge Coclaims that Dodge county owes them money for bridge work done by them and are asking for a judyment. While the case is pending, Mr. Courtright is having printed daily articles why the county should pay this claim and why the bridge company is deserving of its pay. County Attorney Cook alleges that this is only propaganda and will only serve to prejudice the citizens of this county and make it difficult to empanel a jury.
