

Persian Educator Will Talk Here

Professor of Shah's University
Will Deliver Addresses Before Various Omaha Organizations This Week.

Jenabeh Fazel Mazandarani, professor of philosophy in the Shah's university, Persia, will arrive in Omaha from the east tomorrow evening. He is visiting America to introduce the principles of the international movement of unity and brotherhood, based upon social, industrial, educational and religious requirements of the present day. He will speak before the Omaha Lions club in the Rome hotel, Tuesday noon. The same afternoon at 2:30, he will speak on "The Ideals of the New Age," before the metaphysical society. In the evening at 8, he will talk on the solution of the economic problem, in the Patterson block at Seventeenth and Farnam streets. "The Poetry of Persia" will be his subject for a talk Wednesday noon at 11:30 in the Y. W. C. A. before the literary department of the Omaha Woman's club. Before the Theosophical society Wednesday evening at 8 in the Leilang building, he will talk on "The Universal Consciousness of Christ." At the regular luncheon of the Omaha Concord club Thursday noon in the Henshaw hotel, the professor will discuss "Old and New Life in Persia," and will appear before the Theosophical society again that afternoon at 2:30 to tell of "The Master Key to Self-Mastery Is Self-Fortification." "Abdul Baha, His Life and His Teachings," is the subject of Professor Mazandarani's concluding lecture in Omaha, Thursday evening at 8 in the ballroom of the Castle hotel. Professor Mazandarani will be entertained at the home of Mrs. W. P. Olds, 1010 South Twenty-eighth street, during his stay in Omaha.

Country Club Stockholders Will Hold Annual Meeting
Stockholders of the Omaha Country club will meet for dinner at 7 and annual business meeting at the Omaha club Tuesday evening for election of officers, consideration of finances and general discussion of plans for the coming year.

Conference Called On Children's Code Commission Program

Governor S. R. McKelvie and Secretary H. H. Antles of the Public welfare committee, will hold a meeting at the governor's mansion in Lincoln at 2:30 Monday afternoon, to which members of the Nebraska League of Women Voters, Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs, W. C. T. U. and the Parent-Teachers association have been invited to discuss the legislative program of the Children's code commission. All Omaha members of these organizations are urged to attend. There will be a meeting of the legislative committee of the League of Women Voters Monday morning at 10:30, at the Y. W. C. A., in Lincoln. Mrs. Charles Dietrich of Hastings, chairman of the Nebraska League of Women Voters, received a telegram Saturday from the National League of Women Voters advising that the Shepherd-Towner bill would come up for vote in the United States senate Monday, December 13. Women throughout the state will send telegrams to Senator Hitchcock urging him to vote in the affirmative.

Sons of Veterans to Elect Officers Monday

Reorganization of Gen. Charles F. Manderson camp No. 1, Sons of Veterans, will be completed at a meeting tomorrow evening in the G. A. R. rooms of the court house at 8 with the election of officers. Members of the division council and past division commanders will gather for dinner at the Paxton hotel Wednesday evening, after which a public patriotic meeting will be held in the council chamber of the city hall of Sons of Veterans, G.

A. R. and all affiliated organizations. Mose P. O'Brien, past division commander, will preside. Talks will be made by Frank Mills, division commander; Col. J. E. Presson, G. A. R. department commander; Mrs. C. E. Adams, Byron G. Burbank of Manderson Camp No. 1 and Lieut. Gov. Pelham A. Barrows, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans. There will be music. A spring wire device that keeps a penholder in the correct position has been invented to aid in teaching penmanship.
