

Brief City News

Looking for Son.—Mrs. James Gillespie of Oklaheola, Ia., has asked the Associated Charities of Omaha to assist in looking for missing 18-year-old son, J. Gilbert Gillespie.

To Improve Viaduct.—The city council approved plans of the railroad to remodel the Tenth street viaduct to a roadway of concrete with a superstructure of steel.

Killed by Narcotics.—Arthur Rice, 424 North Sixteenth street, died yesterday from an overdose of narcotics, according to statements made to the police by his wife, Lulu.

Nurse Dies.—Miss Gertrude Helm, 19-year-old nurse at the Omaha Emergency hospital, Tenth and Douglas streets, died Sunday morning of pneumonia, contracted while waiting on patients in the hospital.

Would Stop Paroles.—Dr. Jennie Callins, social and welfare worker, at a meeting of the Omaha Philanthropic society recommended a law compelling men convicted of assault to spend every day of their sentences in the penitentiary.

Tolstol to Be Held.—Count Leo Tolstol, Russian philosopher, will pass through Omaha December 18 at 8:30 a. m. enroute to Los Angeles, according to a telegram received yesterday by the general passenger agent of the Union Pacific.

Stolen Pouch Found.—A mail pouch from the Webster street railroad station was found by police yesterday on Fifteenth street between Webster and Burr streets. The pouch was empty. Postoffice inspectors refuse to discuss the case.

Want Revolving Fund.—A city charter amendment providing for a public improvement revolving fund will be recommended to the legislature this winter, it was announced by the mayor and city commissioners yesterday, following an informal conference.

Favors "Cooling Period."—Judge W. W. Sabaugh recommended a "cooling period" between the inception and trial of divorce cases, in the hope that reconciliation may be effected, at a meeting of the Douglas county bar association at the Chamber of Commerce.

Macaroni Causes Riot.—Prisoners at the county jail beat on the bars Sunday night and yelled till their lungs ached in protest against the constant serving of macaroni on the prison table. So for breakfast Monday morning they had a breakfast of bread and water but no macaroni.

Tries To End Life.—Mrs. Martha Varn, 33 1/2 Leavenworth street, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by swallowing 15 grains of poison tablets. Her husband, E. J. Varn, told police she had made other attempts as the result of grief over the death of a former husband.

Set Playground Hearing.—The city council yesterday issued an invitation to taxpayers to be present in the council chamber Monday when a decision will be reached on a plan to acquire property for a playground at Grant and Lake streets between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets.

Child Bitten by Dog.—Willis Sands, 7, son of C. F. Sands, 1745 South Twenty-seventh street, was bitten by a dog yesterday in front of the home of E. V. Scooper, 1748 South Twenty-seventh street. The dog was taken to the Humane society "shelter" at Eleventh and Nicholas streets for observation for symptoms of rabies.

Rotarians Aid Drive.—C. R. Perry, general secretary of the International Rotary Clubs of America, has appealed to the 150 Rotary clubs of America to aid in raising $5,000,000 for European relief. A. B. Currie, head of the Omaha Rotary club, stated yesterday the local organization would do its bit.

Rouses Enthusiasm.—An enthusiastic audience gave close attention to an address at Bethel Baptist church Sunday evening on the value of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People, by Dr. O. M. Waller of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. The meeting closed with remarks by H. W. Black, president of the local branch.

Explains Trade Bureau.—Ansel R. Clark of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, Washington, D. C., conferred yesterday with the sign trade and commerce committee of the Chamber of Commerce concerning the establishment of a foreign sign trade bureau in Omaha. The committee will make a report to the executive committee on the suggestions made by Mr. Clark.

Must Serve as Juror.—District Judge Troup refused yesterday to excuse M. C. Van Derveer, manager of the Farmers' Supply company, from jury service, despite the fact that Van Derveer offered to get a physician's certificate to show he wasn't physically fit. Others met with much the same treatment, excepting W. H. Murray, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific railroad, who was excused for one week.

On Way to America.—John I. Taminosian, 4912 Chicago street, has received word from Miss Adelaide S. Dwight, personal service division for the Near East Relief headquarters in New York, through the Omaha branch, that a fund of $750 sent by him and Omaha friends to his nephew Diran Taminosian, in Beirut, Syria, has been delivered and

Mr. Taminosian is on his way to America. Nishan Ballozian, brother-in-law of Dr. John Baptist, 604 Barker block, is reported to be returning to America with Taminosian.

Bishop Draws Applause.—Bishop Ernest V. Shaylor of Nebraska drew applause at the First Methodist church Sunday night, when he referred to the present Irish situation as an effort to effect a breach between "the two greatest Protestant and English speaking nations of the world." The bishop summed up the work done by the Lambert conference at London which he attended.

Will Ask New Bids.—The city council decided yesterday to advertise January 1 for new bids for repaving Portieth street from Cumming to Hamilton.

Election Assured.—J. H. Beveridge, superintendent of Omaha public schools, is assured the presidency of the Nebraska State Teachers' association as all other candidates nominated have withdrawn. Other officers assured by the same process of self-elimination are: W. H. Morton, Fairbury, for vice president, and J. F. Matthews of Grand Island for treasurer.

Held to Grand Jury.—R. J. Grant, Auburn, Neb., and J. F. Bigelow, Portland, Ore., charged with using the mails to defraud in organizing a "movie school" in Omaha, waived their preliminary hearing yesterday before United States Commissioner Boehler and were bound over to the federal grand jury in $500 bonds, each.

Detained in Ireland.—Miss Nellie Peters, Omaha girl, who has been in Ireland, did not sail on the Celtic from Ireland, as was expected, according to word received from her by friends. It is understood she failed in an attempt to book passage on that vessel because it was too crowded when she made application.
