

Benson Society

Benson Correspondent—Call Walnut 5370

Day Nursery.
The day nursery, sponsored by the Benson Woman's club, is open Thursday afternoon of each week between the hours of 12 and 5. Mothers may leave their children in the care of a competent nurse by paying a small fee for each child.

Christmas Entertainment.
The Junior Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church has arranged a Christmas program to be given Friday night, December 24, in the church. The program opens with a professional hymn, followed by Luther's cradle song, rendered by the beginners' class of the Sunday school. The juniors will sing, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear." After the invocation by Rev. Moneyaker, a chorus will be given by the junior society. Mrs. James Morton will tell the Christmas story. Miss Jennie Gillespie's class will give a pantomime portraying the birth of Christ. "The Three Wise Men" will be given by John Colson, Wallace Carson and Joseph Brewster. Bennett Davis will sing, "Silent Night." Genevieve Cass will read the story of the shepherds. Others taking part in the program are, May Cook, Margaret Jones, Julia Beavers, Dorothy Nevins, Junior Moneyaker, Beulah Williams, Eloise Glantz, Elsie Wollman and Miss Katharine Gutting, who renders a violin offertory solo. After the Santa Claus part of the program the congregation unites in singing, "Joy to the World."
