New York Banker Says Revision of

Otto Kahn Tells Congressional Committee That Business Of Country Need Aid Immediately.

Washington, Dec. 21 .- Business of the country is demanding and must have revision of the tax laws if it is to continue a healthy growth, Otto H. Kahn, New York banker, told the house ways and means committee today in the course of a statement in which he denounced ecouomic aspects of the treaty of Versailles and declared for a continuation of income surtaxes.

The excess profit tax "must go,"
Mr. Kahn said, adding that while it was theoretically sound, its disadvantages outbalanced its advantages. Urges Surtax Be Kept.

Continuation of the income surtaxes, Mr. Kahn explained, was a social and economic necessity, but he warned against excessive levies on the higher incomes on the ground that they did not produce the maxi-mum of revenue for which they were designed. He said also that he opposed any exemption under income tax provisions, Before Mr. Kahn was called, Chairman Fordney stated that he and other members of the commit-tee were in favor of "some kind" of a sales tax as one of the means of raising the $4,000,000,000 of revenue needed annually by the government.

financial turmoil" for the psedica-ment in which the farmers find themselves. He said their condition was not due to financial deflation because "there has not been any financial deflation so far."

Taxes Killed Market. Taxation, according to Mr. Kahn. was one of the factors bringing about a collapse in the market. He declared it was necessary "that we retrace our steps and re-establish a saner and fairer system of taxation without any undue tenderness to

Subterranean Still Disclosed by Blaze

Sioux Falls, S. D., Dec. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—A subterranean still is the latest development in the campaign being waged against makers of

A dwelling house in the eastern section of the city which had been suspected as a rendezvous for dispen-sers of liquor was destroyed by fire. While inspecting the ashes of a shee at the rear, federal prohibition offi cers discovered a ladder leading to underground regions. Descending they found a room 16 feet under the ground, completely walled up, which had been utilized as a distillery. Seven barrels of corn mash attest ed to the purpose for which the room had seen used. The still, however, had disappeared. No arrests have been made thus far.
