

Labor Presents 43 Demands for New State Laws

Fifty Representatives Attend
Conference With Governor
McKelvie and Have Lunchcon in Mansion.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—While conferences now being held by Governor McKelvie are considered secret, and no newspaper men admitted, it is understood that at the conference held this afternoon with representatives of labor 43 specific demands were made which the labor people would like to see incorporated in the message of the governor to the legislature for enactment.

Among these are: Open primary; abolishment of the party circles on the ballot; opposition to industrial court unless limited in its powers; eight hours for street car employees; maximum benefits from compensation from $10 to $25; owners of property liable as well as contractors for injuries; mechanics' liens given priority over construction money mortgages; repeal of wage garnishment law; minimum wage for school teachers; state ownership and development of water power; collective bargaining and marketing through representatives of their own choosing; consolidation in Omaha of municipal, police and justice courts; exemption of home and farm improvements from taxation; two hours off to vote on primary and election days; old age and disability pensions.

About 50 representatives were present and took luncheon with the governor at the mansion after the conference.

Bandits Loot Bank

Barney, N. D., Dec. 22.—The State bank here was looted last night by robbers, who blew open the vault and escaped with $2,500 in cash and between $15,000 and $20,000 in negotiable securities.

Charles Ponzi Sends Christmas Greetings To Host of Creditors

Boston, Dec. 22.—Charles Ponzi, today sent from Plymouth jail a Christmas greeting to his thousands of creditors, bidding them be of good cheer. His letter, written on expensive bond paper, was engraved with the legend "Charles Ponzi, Plymouth, Mass."

The one-time financier, who is serving a five-year sentence for using the mails in a scheme to defraud, expressed a hope that the mishap to his creditors' investments would not mar the spirit of the Christmas season and asked them to look forward with him to the day when he would step from the jail a free man to aid them in recovering their losses.

He asked that if his yuletide message found any response among them they send "a word of sympathy and encouragement" to his wife and mother.

Communists Surrender Under Deportation Act

New York, Dec. 22.—Twenty-three communists surrendered themselves at Ellis island for deportation to Russia. They will depart on the steamer Imperator, scheduled to sail tomorrow. All were captured in raids last winter, but were released on bail because at that time no transportation line was open to Russia.

BRANDEIS STORES

Shopping Made Pleasant
Even Among Enormous Crowds

YOU have noticed the crowds that have thronged our counters daily. BUT YOU also noticed that in spite of the so-called "jam," business was transacted in an orderly way, "much like clock work," as one well satisfied shopper put it. Well, that's all part of the "Lookout in the Foretop" system—that plan whereby Service, as well as Quality and Prices, is ever maintained for the comfort and convenience of our customers and for the advancement of our business interests.

"IT'S A REAL PLEASURE to shop at Brandeis Stores" is a common remark. We have ever sought to improve the conditions and help make shopping a pleasure rather than a drudge. Shopping at Brandeis Stores is easy by reason of the systematic efforts we have made along these lines.

WERE WE "sold out?" It did look like it, didn't it? But you know a part of the "Lookout in the Foretop" system is provision for every emergency. Lots of merchants did not expect a big business this year. We did—and we had it. But so thorough were our purchases for the holidays that we are prepared to supply every Christmas need.

LATE CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS will find that our holiday merchandise is greatly reduced in quantity but—as is the invariable rule in our storerooms—there is no question as to the quality. Quality is the first thing for consideration when Brandeis Stores purchase goods for distribution among its customers. Even with the large sales we have made during the past two weeks, the assortment of holiday goods still on hand in every line is complete.

Thursday will be a very busy day at the Brandeis Stores, and here you may shop in comfort however large the Christmas crowds may be
