Our Faith

Our faith in Omaha is above every other material faith, except that which we have in our state and country.

Omaha merits this faith primarily because of the spirit of peace and good will which is always manifest among her citizens.

This spirit of good will and peace is particularly evident at this season—made so by the anniversary of the first Christmas Gift.

whole-heartedly to this sentiment. Its members want such a feeling to be universal. It is our wish, and confident belief, that this
