Des Moines, Ia., Dec., 29.-(Special Telegram.)-Earl Caddock of Walnut, Ia., defeated John Pesek of Ravenna, Neb., in straight falls here last night before a large crowd of enthusiastic wrestling fans. The Iowan won both falls with a double wristlock on the right arm. The first in one hour, eight minutes and 20 seconds and the second in seven

While Pesek put up a sensational defensive match he did not appear dangerous at any time. Caddock, however, apparently respected his opponent and wrestled cautiously. As a result, the first 30 minutes were rather slow, but after that the men warmed up and going became

It was 40 mintes before either applied a good field, Caddock getting the first, a wristlock. The Iowan continually used this hold through-out the match. His hold that won the first fall apparently hurt Pesek's arm, for he gave up just as soon as Caddock obtained the hold in the second set-to.

In the semi-windup Joe Stangle of Carroll, Ia., won all the way from Max Orlando of Chicago. The latter was so strong that he staved off defeat time after time. The Iowan took the first fall in 37 minutes with a head scissors and bar arm lock and the second in 16 minutes, 30 seconds with a toe hold.

United Presbyterians Defeat Pearl Quintet

Playing a good floor game and shooting baskets from difficult angles, the United Presbyterian basket ball tossers, members of the Church league, defeated the Pearl basketeers last night by a score of

The Graham brothers, playing forwards for the United Presbyterians, were the stars of the game. J. Graham caged eight baskets, while his brother sent the ball sailing through the irons for three baskets. The Grace Lutheran cagers walloped the Lowe team, 21 to 14, and the Bellevue quintet trounced the Kops, 20 to 5, while the Benson flippers easily defeated the Clifton team, 46 to 3.

From tackle to tackle, the Ohio line should outplay the California forwards. Nemecek at center and J. Taylor and Trott at guards, are a formidable center trio, while Captain Huffman and Spiers are tackles of the reliable type. While California has a strong forward wall, the only player who matches with any of the Buckeys lineamen is McMillan, tackle, who was chosen for the all-Pacific conference eleven and Majora, the guard.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 29.-Freddie Welsh, who retired after losing the world's lightweight boxing championship to Benny Leonard in 1917, returned to the ring last night and scored a technical knockout over Willie Green of Boston after four rounds of a 12-round match. Green efused to respond to the bell for the fifth round, claiming he had injured his shoulder.

The former titleholder showed only flashes of his old-time form, but had little difficulty in outboxing his opponent. Welsh weighed 1371/2 and Green 135.

THE BLUE LAW BLUES

Somewhere in the U.S. A., There stood a gloomy man Who sang a dismal roundelay, And this is how it ran:

The blue law blues! I'm bluer than a brewer Every time I read the news That a man who does, on Sunday, Anything he likes to do Is put into jail on Monday For a month or maybe two.

If I cut up any capers, Such as going for a walk; If I read the Sunday papers Some old bird will make a squawk.

And left me with those blue law blues! He gave a harsh, hollow moan; He breathed a fervent curse; And in a rather gloomier tone He sang this second verse:

They've took away my Sunday, like they took away my booze,
