Nebraska Two-Cent Passenger Fare Law

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 1 .- (Special.) The 2-cent passenger fare law passed in 1917 is upheld in the report of Special Master John F. Stout of Omaha, who recommends to the federal court that the petition of the tenance, Rock Island against the state rail- taxes and interest on the invest-way commission be dismissed. The Rock Island initiated the 3cent fare after obtaining a tempor-ary injunction against enforcement of the 2-cent fare. Stout's findings were filed in federal court today and are in direct contradiction to those of Special Master Frank S. Gaines, who several months ago held in fa-ver of the Missouri Pacific in jtsfight against the 2-cent fare.
