

Skinner Packing Plant Attached

Former Official Seeks to Obtain $266,000 as Damages And Back Salary.

The entire Skinner Packing company, plant, South Side, and the Skinner cold storage warehouse building, Twelfth and Douglas streets, were attached yesterday afternoon by a writ issued on application of R. C. Howe on a suit filed by him against the Skinner interests for $266,000.

He asks $66,000 for salary as manager of the packing plant on an alleged written contract and $200,000 as damages for breach of contract when he was discharged from his position early last year.

The order of attachment was issued by a clerk of the court.

The reason for asking an attachment was stated to be because the Skinner Packing company is a Maine corporation.

"We are in this fight to the last ditch," said William Ritchie, Jr., attorney for the Skinners. "We will not let such methods wreck the Skinner plant. Mr. Howe gained no security by this attachment but it will cost us $2,600 just to have it released under a bond."
