

Brief City News

Skating Rinks Cleared—Snow is being removed rapidly from municipal park skating rinks, according to Park Commissioner Falconer.

Snow Must Be Removed—Chief of Police Eberstein instructed patrolmen to arrest property owners who do not have snow shoveled off their sidewalks after 24 hours notice.

Lectures to Students—W. J. Martin of the agricultural department of the Union Pacific railroad, lectured to Seventh grade pupils of the Yates school at the railroad's headquarters yesterday.

Dance Permit Delayed—Issuance of a municipal dance hall permit to the Marigold cabaret, nee Black Cat, will be delayed for a time at least, O. M. Adams, superintendent of the Board of Public Welfare, said yesterday.

Professor to Lecture—Dr. Hartley Burr Alexander, department of philosophy of the University of Nebraska, will begin a series of 15 weekly lectures on democratic ideals next Monday in the city hall council chamber, speaking under the auspices of the Omaha school forum.

Lovers Settle Differences—Marion Hamilton, 2117 Douglas street, and Jack Norris, South Side, have settled their recent dispute, in which Norris claimed Marion owed him $191.75, which he had advanced to her. He was given a $25 judgment and the two left the court room together yesterday.

Club Wants Furniture—A rug, a chair or two and "some kind of a musical instrument" are desired by the Casino club, which was organized in October and is composed of business girls of the city. The club is sponsored by the Board of Public Welfare and has its headquarters at 303 Patterson block.

Says Income Increased—Income of the Nebraska Power company increased $600,000 during 1920, or in the neighborhood of $100,000 more than the increase in coal costs, R. B. Howell, general manager of the metropolitan water district, said yesterday in an answer to a plea of the electric light company for increased rates.

Chicago Woman to Speak—The principal speaker at the women's "Onward Omaha" dinner at the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday evening will be Mrs. Florence M. King, prominent Chicago attorney and president of the National Women's Association of Commerce. It was announced yesterday that 450 women had made reservations.

Fund Aids Students—The $4,000 fund left by Emma Rosicky, principal of Bancroft school, to assist pupils in obtaining an education, absented three boys to enter the High School of Commerce for the winter term. It was learned yesterday. The first interest accumulation on the fund, $177, will be used to help the three boys by providing lunches, car fare and part of their clothes.

Attends Title Men's Meeting—Henry J. Fehman, in charge of the title department of Petersen Title company, is in Kansas City attending a special meeting of the officers and executive committee of the American Association of Title Men. Mr. Fehman is president of the title examiners' section of the association and is chairman of the executive committee of the section.

Prize Offered by Store Goes to European Relief

Sometime ago J. L. Brandeis & Sons offered a prize of $50 for a name for Brandeis Stores cafeteria. Many suggestions have been received, but no name suggested is acceptable. The management has decided, therefore, to retain the original name, Brandeis Stores cafeteria. The prize of $50 has been presented to the fund for the relief of the starving children of Europe.
