

Final Banquets Of Father and Son Week Are Held

T. W. McCullough, J. H. Beveridge, Roy N. Towl and Dr. Charles Herron Among Speakers.

Final banquets in the observance of Father and Son week in Omaha churches were held last night.

Col. T. W. McCullough spoke to fathers at the dinner in the Westminster Presbyterian church, which was held under the auspices of the men's brotherhood.

A male quartet sang and there were community songs. Supt. J. H. Beveridge of Omaha schools, chairman of the father and son committee, spoke on "The Right Father and Son Relationship."

At the South Side United Presbyterian church, R. J. Robertson was toastmaster. Irvin Graham led community singing.

Dr. J. M. Patton gave the principal talk on "The Great Companionship." An orchestra and male quartet furnished music.

This noon the Grade Boys' Bible club of the Y. M. C. A. will observe the week with special song service. George Benolken, leader in student activities at Central High school, will speak on "Appreciation of Dad."

Motion pictures of Booth Tarkington's "The Gentleman From Indiana," will be shown at the special meeting of the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A.

Husband of Woman Who Went on Fast To Sue for Divorce

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Danville, Ill., Jan. 21.—Mrs. Sadie Harrington, wife of Ernest Harrington, who claims she fasted 48 days in an effort to force her husband to embrace her religion and become a preacher, has so far recovered from her experience that she has resumed her duties around the house.

Her husband is thoroughly out of patience with her and intends to sue for divorce.

"This is the sixth time since we were married 18 years ago, that Sadie has pulled some sort of a stunt like this," he declared, "and I'm tired of it." Sadie and those poor nuts who are hanging around her want me to sell everything I have and turn the money over to them so they can build a church. I have had enough of this foolishness and she can mix with these people to her heart's content.

Manufacturer Defends 'Open Shop' Movement

Chicago, Jan. 21.—The open shop is the only true American standard in which no one receives special privileges and all have an equal chance, declared S. C. Mason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, before a meeting of the members of the association.

"We must do all in our power to quell the spirit of discontent that rests on the country," he said. Congress can do much by removing the government shackles on private business. We must meet organized labor with our organization."

Allied Experts Complete Report on Reparations

Paris, Jan. 21.—The allied experts on reparations have completed a report which will be presented to the allied governments interested. It is understood that the experts recommend that the final determination of the total amount of reparations Germany must pay shall not be postponed beyond May 1, the date fixed by the treaty of Versailles.

It is suggested that meanwhile a provisional arrangement might be made under which Germany would be called on to make a definite payment of five annual installments of 3,000,000,000 marks gold each, in money and kind.

Building Trades Of Chicago Not to Accept Wage Cut

Statement Says Living Costs Have Increased 93 Per Cent, While Wages Have Been Raised But 70 Per Cent.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—In a statement made public today by the Chicago building trades council, reasons are set forth why the 32 affiliated unions voted not to accept wage reductions within the next three years.

The statement cites government figures showing the cost of living in Chicago has increased 93.3 per cent over 1914 and asserts the increase in building trade wages here in the same period has been from 66 to 70 per cent.

"A full honest day's work should be furnished by labor," said the statement. "We know there have been abuses on the part of tradesmen who have taken advantage of conditions. The building trades have agreed that any workman who does not do an honest day's work will be disciplined by his organization."

Caverns That Rival Mammoth Cave Found Near Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 21.—Reports say that new caverns whose presence has never been suspected, one of which contained the skeleton of a prehistoric human being, have been found in Great Crystal cavern, Hart county. One discovery was a great underground cathedral and other wonders which make the new cavern a rival of Mammoth cave.

Long galleries stretch in every direction and in one of these the skeleton was found. Claude Collins owns the farm on which the great cavern is located. He was exploring the place when on pushing aside a boulder he saw the great cathedral and the passages.

Man Blinded by His 'Soul Bride' to Get $80,000 Insurance

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Chicago, Jan. 21.—Julius Jonas, who was shot and blinded by Pauline Meglich of St. Louis, his "soul bride," will receive practically all the $80,000 insurance he was carrying at the time.

Attorneys for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, which carried his nine policies, have withdrawn the suit to rescind the policies and it is said the company has agreed to pay very nearly the full amount.

Jonas, who was married, Miss Meglich in a flat he provided for her. He finally tired of the adventure, became reconciled to his wife and notified his "soul bride" he intended to cease the double life. She induced him to make a final visit to the flat, and as he slept, shot him through the temples and then killed herself.

Japanese Rule With Harsh Hand In Vladivostok

Force of 10,000 Troops Stationed in City Impose Will On Russians—Erect Wireless Plant.

By FREDERICK SMITH. New York Times-Chicago Tribune Cable, Copyright, 1921. Honolulu, Jan. 21.—Since the Japanese shot up Vladivostok last April, they have ruled that city with a high hand. At present they have 10,000 troops stationed there to impose their will on the Russian inhabitants.

The American consul's protest against the Japanese seizure of the city resulted in the lowering of countless Japanese flags which were then immediately raised over the main buildings, after Japanese rifles had spread terror and death among the Russians.

Increase in Lumber Prices Is Predicted

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 21.—Declaring that the price of lumber is not high and that it will go higher before coming down, R. R. Goodman of Marquette, Wis., chairman of the economic committee of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, spoke at the timber supply and prices, at the Yale forest school.

"The price of lumber will be lower only on short reactions and its trend in the commodity scale is slowly upward," he said. "This means a continuously better utilization of our forests, a higher appreciation of lumber's real value, more judicious use and careful preservation of it. It also means an awakening of the public interest in forestry."
