New Spring Suits

Fostered by Paris and New York Authorities

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' SUITS that authentically set forth the correct modes in suits. They are on display tomorrow in the suit section and to seekers of individuality and originality a word will be sufficient.

The Prevailing Styles

We visited practically all of the exclusive suit manufacturers and found the prevailing style the short box jacket for the young women while the more tailored suits with slightly fitted lines are favored for the older women. In the box coats a great deal of attention is centered on the bell shaped sleeves, which are three-quarter or seven-eighths in length. Most of the collars on these suits are simple affairs, either standing in military style or rolling in Dutch fashion. The Tuxedo collar and tightly fitted sleeves prevail in tailored suits.

Embroidery Not So Ornate

But it appears in self tones with the suits and in small motifs; navy leads in popularity and falcon and pewter are proving very good.

The Prices Range from $59 to $98

Canton Crepe and Imported Georgette Prevailing Materials

You will love them all and you will linger here in ecstasy as your fancies run riot and are delightfully thrilled. The models in georgette crepe are all hand made and hand decorated; those of Canton crepe are tie-on models elaborately braided.

Prices Range from 15.00 to 39.50

Canton Crepe, Poirer Twill, Puppy Skin Taffeta, Tricotine and Crepe Back Satin are charmingly adapted to the new silhouette or circular skirt and basque blouses, as well as to the ever popular straight line styles.

Distinctive Are the "Milgrim Models," the Ultra in Tailored Frocks

Exquisite materials are moulded with bewildering artistry into modes combining luxurious smartness with the swaggering charm of youth.

Blue and gray combinations stand out among the colors, while brown and black enjoy a goodly share of popularity. All of these dresses are strikingly new and refreshingly youthful—the ideal styles for early spring wear.
