

Too Many Alibis In Police Court, Says Boy 'Judge'

And He Gives Heavy Fines
To Play Traffic Violators
—Schools Repeat
Playlets.

When the students of Benson High school held court Friday afternoon and arraigned traffic violators during their "safety-first" program, Robert Trullinger, 3128 North Fifty-ninth street, the judge, listened to no excuses but assessed heavy fines upon all violators.

"In police court, the judges listen to too many alibis," the youthful judge said when asked why so severe. "Traffic violators have no excuse for endangering the lives of others by careless driving or speeding. They also know there is a limit to parking privileges and they know just how long they can park their cars in certain places. When there are law violations, the violators should be punished."

At Druid Hill school the pupils had an elaborate program in one of the rooms reproduced Sixteenth and Farnam streets. The proper methods to pursue to avoid accidents at street intersections were shown.

Teachers Get "Called."

Mrs. Jean Ray and Miss Ella J. Houston, teachers at the South Lincoln school, learned, while on their way home from school Friday afternoon, that their lessons in "safety-first" methods had been carried home by their pupils.

As they were walking along the street they came upon two tiny girls sitting on the right side of the walk. To avoid them and stepping into the mud, the teachers passed the little ones to the left.

"Oh, look at the jay-walkers," the tots cried in unison.

"Safety-first" was taught to all pupils of the South Lincoln school Friday afternoon in a program which included many practical demonstrations.

To Respect Playlets.

Pupils of the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grades wrote playlets on the prevention of accidents as a part of their "safety-first" program as well as for their English lessons. One of the contributions, "Safety Before Fun," written by Elba Rominger, 11, 2425 E. street, was so good it will be presented by the pupils next week. In many schools the "safety-first" programs will be extended to next week.

Pupils of the Field club and Da-pon school will have a joint program next Wednesday morning at the Field club school.

Court Fines Autoist for Ignoring Scouts' Signals

Because he refused to heed the traffic signals of two Boy Scouts guarding a "coasting" hill, Walter Bargawick, autost, 1943 South Twenty-ninth street, was fined $2.50 yesterday. Ralph Edison, 12, and Oswald Simpson, 3, the Boy Scouts, declared he "cussed" them when they sought to stop him.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You
Darken Gray, Faded Hair
With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.
