Mrs. Patton Ousted Despite Protest of Woman's Club—Other Appointments Made.

Initiation fee for membership in the Elks will be increased from $25 to $50 on February 1, according to an announcement made yesterday by W. G. Sears, exalted ruler, and I. W. Miner, secretary.

The prisoners were arrested Monday night by Police Officers Payne and Bugiewicz, following a call from the home of J. McKenna, 3924 North Thirty-eighth street.

Dan Westergard was appointed superintendent of the county poor farm yesterday by the county board, succeeding Mrs. Cora Patton who held the position since the death of her husband.

Under the initiation fee of $25 the Elks' lodge No. 39 has built up a membership of nearly 5,000. A concentrated effort will be made during the next week to obtain a record number of applications for membership.

The health commissioner announced that this is the beginning of a vigorous food campaign.

William Kierstead, jr., was appointed fireman at the county poor farm and Gus Wicklund was named as engineer.

The McClummont Marble company was awarded a contract of $11,500 to resurface damaged marble at the court house.

The health commissioner announced that this is the beginning of a vigorous food campaign.
