Hopes of citizens of Summerfield, Neb., for the purchase of the de-serted line of the Kansas City & Northwestern railroad by the Union Pacific system were blasted by Paul Rigdon, assistant to Carl R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific. Reports had been current in Pawnee county that as soon as the road hed of this small line, which crosses the Burlington at Armour and ends south of Beatrice, could be put in condition, it would be used as a run on it for two years. "The Union Pacific has never even considered purchasing the K, C. & N. W.," said Mr. Rigdon, "The property is defunct, and would only be an expense if taken over by our system. The Union Pacific already has terminal rights in Kansas City superior to those of this line, and our present line between Lincoln

Mr. Rigdon also denied a report from Sioux City that the Union Two blocks to 24th street car Paeific is contemplating building a connecting link between Norfolk and that city. He explained that the railroad now running between these points is sufficient to handle all the traffic, and that it is not the policy of the Interstate Commerce commission to allow existing lines to be
