New York Cotton.

New York, Jan. 29.—The cotton market opened from at an advance of 13 to 17 points on the improvement in foreign exchange rates, following reports that the allies had agreed on the terms of the German indemnity. The market was rather unsettled after the call. March eased off from 14.55c to 14.55c and July from 15.35 to 16.25c, or within a few points of last night's closing figures. Sales of print cloths in the Fall River market were extinated at about half last week's and the curtallment of production at 110,000 pieces. Except for some further switching from March to later months, business was very quiet later and largely in the way of evening up for over the week end. This included covering by some recent sellers bond of March. After selling off to 14.47c, it closed at 11.52c, or 4 points net higher. Sell The general market was fairly steady. New York Coffee.

New York, Jan. 28.—The market for coffee futures was quiet today with fluctuations correspondingly marrow. The opening was 3 points lower, owing to somewhat disappointing Brazilian cables, but there had been selling yesterday in anticipation of their showing, and prices railled later on covering. May sold up from 7.00c to 7.04c and closed at 7.03c, with the general market closing net unchanged to 2 points higher. January, 6.56c; March, 6.51c; May, 7.03c; July, 7.43c; September, 7.50c; October, 7.52c; December, 8.15c.

Spot coffee was reported in fair demand with prices unchanged at 7c to 74c for Rio 5s and 9%c to 10c for Santos 4s.
