

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE—ROTOGRAVURE SECTION.

What a Day Off Means to a Movie Star

Each star has a hobby. It may be golf, horses or water --- poker not excepting. However, leave it to a film star to make a free day enjoyable.

No greater sport for VIOLA DANA than "stepping out" in a luxurious limousine

Bill Hart takes daily rides on "Pinto" just to do some exploring for new locations

Harry Carey delights in taking a jaunt through the red-woods of California

Film stars haven't given up the art of sewing. Kathlyn Williams is a wonder at designing

Rudolph Valentine and his dancing partner, Alice Terry, step off a few measures to some "wicked blues"

What does Charley care about getting pinched? He's just fairly enjoying himself on a little daily airing.