Nebraska Lands.

THE man that "wiggles and wobbles," is a procrastinator, but I am not going to "wiggle and wobble" or procrastinate, neither am I a prevaricator. I believe in "truth in advertising." I have to sell my Seward county half section, and it is a shame that I have to write you every day for three weeks to get you to spend 2 cents when it will be the biggest investment you ever made, as I am going to send you full particulars regarding this farm home, also pictures showing improvements and lay of land, and tell you what a productive farm this is, right in the corn, wheat, alfalfa and tame grass belt of Nebraska, and but 24 miles due went of Lincoln, the capital of the best state in the union. Say, I forgot to tell you that I can deliver my stock by truck to the stock yards in South Omaha as quickly as you used to deliver yours to your local buyer and load my trucks again with what I want to buy and do it all fu one day and still I have to sell a farm like I have to some fellow that has his money in a "tin can" or his "sock" and if you cannot afford to seend 2 cents. Nebraska Lands.

REAL ESTATE TO EXCHANGE like I have to some fellow that has his money in a "tin can" or his "sock" and if you cannot afford to spend 2 cents, write me on a postal card at 412 Peters Trust huildine, Omaha, and you will find out that D. P. O'Neall means business, and will make you terms that you will buy, one or both of my quarters. Do it now. If you don't, I hope you will keep on "wigsling and wobbling" until some smooth fellow takes you into buying some oil stock or your daughter marries and you have to spend your money to keep her husband out of fail or some bank falls and you have to rept a farm the rest of your life.

FOR SALE—IDEAL STÖCK RANCH.

3,440-acre stock ranch in western Nebraska, 10 miles from county seat; well fenced and cross-fenced in 3 pastures; plenty of running spring water for stock; situated meatly in wooded hills; plenty of growing timber, pine and cedar for shade, shelter, wood, poles, posts, etc.; blackroot, wheat and gramma grasses. Ranch will run 300 head of cattle; 150 acres good, level alfalfa land to be irrigated by owner's private irrigation project now under construction which goes with the ranch; that part under the irrigation ditch has produced without irrigation an abundance of hay and feed for winter; 160 acres now in winter wheat; 100 acres of this land this year made 35-bu, of wheat per acre. 1,060 acres of this ranch could be tractor farmed; all good, rich soil. 40 head of registered Hereford cattle may be sold with the ranch or not as suits buyer. Good 10-room dwelling house, all modern improvements, spring water piped throughout; Delco electric lights; garage; producing apple orchard and plenty of wild fruit. Bank barn, 24x80; corrais, sheds, etc. Price, $25 per acre. $46,000 carried back on ranch on long time at 6 per cent, must have $16,000 carried back on ranch on long time at 6 per cent, must have $16,000 cash and will consider good first mortgage paper or first-class farm on balance. No agent, you deal direct with the owner living on the ranch. Postsession March 1. Address Box Y-1422. Omaha Bee.

Youth Who Served Late Czar as Spy Talks to Cade

Adopted Son of President of Czecho-Slovakia to Enter University of Nebraska Next Year.

Marrik Masaryk, adopted son of the president of the Czecho-Slovale republic, and a spy in the Russian army for six years, visited Central High school yesterday, and made an address to the cadet regiment. He demonstrated the use of the rifle in fighting the Russian Cossock, and also defensive bayonet work.

Masaryk, who is 18 years of age, intered the Russian infantry when years old. In two years he became a spy for the Russian government under the late czar. He served in that capacity for six years. He was wounded in the leg four times by machine gun fire. He was also wounded in the right heel, and wears platinum plate placed there by a French physician. This youth speaks seven languages with ease, and is able to lecture in five of them. He has been sent to America by his father to further his education. He is to spend three years in this country. Masaryk is spending his first year in this country in traveling and lec-turing. Next year he will enter the University of Nebraska for a two-year course. He has now been in the United States three months, and is able to speak the English language so that he can be understood.

He will spend the rest of the week in Omaha, and will give several lec-He will sepak to the students of Central school at a mass meeting
