Miss Coldren is visiting with friends in Omaha.

Kennington.
Mrs. Roy Garner entertained 14 guests informally on Saturday. The afternoon was spent with needle work, followed by tea.

Relative of Actress.
Many Council Bluffs people were interested in the musical comedy, "Irene," which played at the Brandeis theater the fore part of last week, but none more so than the Mulqueen family, who found that winsome little Catherine Mulqueen was one of their kin.

This gifted artist, in the title role, scored a decided hit, and the Mulqueens say she is as charming off the stage as she is on.

Bridge.
Mrs. A. H. Dunn entertained three tables of bridge at her home last Thursday afternoon. The prize for high score was awarded Mrs. Don Waller and Mrs. J. A. Clark received the consolation.

Dinner.
An informal dinner of six covers was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Galvin at their home last Thursday evening.

For Bride-to-Be

A charming and useful little gift for a bride-to-be is an indexed set of recipes—and it costs nothing but the labor. Write the recipes out in quantities for two persons. Done on white correspondence cards in bright colored ink, they are most attractive. One need not even use the stereotyped wooden box. Place the cards in the heavy cardboard stationery box they come in and the present will be as dainty and infinitely more useful than anything else the bride receives.

Never cut sponge cake. It should be broken apart with a fork. Even large ink spots generally yield to soaking in sour milk. Soak the soiled part for four hours, then add more sour milk from time to time. Rinse in cold water.

Wedding Announcement

A very simple and quiet wedding took place in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, uniting in marriage Mrs. Shirley W. Harrison of Council Bluffs and Edward J. Alleshouse of Pontiac, Mich.

The bride was becomingly gowned in Canton crepe of the taupe shade, with which she wore a hat of blue and gold. A corsage of Ophelia rosebuds completed her costume.

Miss Muriel Mann played the wedding march and E. H. Doolittle and George Jackson were ushers. There were no attendants.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Henshaw, where jonquills and frezias were used as a table decoration.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Minnie Alleshouse of Pontiac, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. George Alleshouse of Fairbury, Neb.; Miss Shirley Harrison of Omaha, and Thomas Q. Harrison of Lincoln, Neb.

The bride and groom left during the afternoon for Kansas City, and will later go to Pontiac, where they will reside.

Miss Anna L. Fisher of New York City, formerly a Red Cross worker in France and later a Near East relief worker in Syria, is now a full-fledged captain in the Arabian army of Prince Feisal, at Damascus.

Mother-Daughter Concert Draws Attention

The present musical season includes a decidedly unusual concert offering in the form of a dual-appearance by Mme. Louise Homer and her daughter, Miss Louise, who appear at the Auditorium February 18, under the auspices of the ladies of the First Congregational church. Great interest of course centers about the prima donna's gifted daughter who is a soprano.

Miss Homer is particularly fortunate in her budding career, possessing a father whose compositions are sung the world over and whose name represents the finest of native musical achievement, and blessed with a mother who is acknowledged as the greatest contralto that America has ever produced, the young artist has had the benefit of an unusual musical atmosphere and cultural surroundings. These rare associations are plainly evident in her singing. She is a pupil of Herbert Witherspoon, and all of her musical training has been received in America.

Miss Mabel Boardman, recently appointed by President Wilson as one of the three commissioners of the District of Columbia, will receive a salary of $5,000 a year.

Gifts of Love

Time and custom have established jewels as the symbols of love. A jewel gift, therefore, carries with it an implied expression of love and a sincerity and depth of sentiment peculiar to itself.

St. Valentine's Day, the holiday of love, offers an opportunity to present a diamond ring, watch or string of pearls.
