Comedy is as great an achievement s tragedy, it is said, and the man who portrays even better than anyone else in the world is a genius. Can Charlie Chaplin, funny screen comedian, be classed a genius? Returning to the screen in "The Kid," his $1,000,000 comedy, he is still Charlie Chaplin with his little hat, dinky mustache, full-draped trousers, enormous shoes, half-sized cane, but he is also there with natural comedy. he is also there with natural comedy and humor that arise from peculiar situations.. "The Kid" is the feature entertainment at the Rialto theater itual, this week.

WHY-

Howling Dogs. It is safe to say that the majority of men waking in the night to the prolonged howling of a dog feel, mingling with their desire to throw something at the brute, a little twinge of uncomfortable superstition. In the first place a dog howling is a mournful thing to hearand then there is the age-long superstition that a howling dog foretells a death in the family. Tennyson alludes to it in his May Queen—"I did not hear the dog howl, mother, or the death-watch beat."

It is very likely that a dog beloved by his master, will howl for his companionship when illness deprives him of it. In fact any serious illness in the house would probably cause the dog to be neglected by others to a large extent and he would howl for his accustomed food or companionship. If the sick person recovers nothing is thought of the dog's howling. But if he dies one member of the family looks with an awed expression and asks: "Did you hear the dog howl last night?" "Yes" will probably be the reply. "I have heard him for several nights now." And each secretly believes, or half believes, that the dog's howling was "a warning." The character of a dag's howl, suggestive of death and deep him for several mights now."

> Vote Stands 4 to 2 Favoring Passage Without Changes; Measure Will Exclude Competition, Butler Charges.

A formal vote of the city council passed a resolution by Commissioner H. B. Zimman yesterday morning requesting the state legislature to pass House Roll No. 1 without amendment. This bill is R. B. Howell's municipal electric light and power bill.

Informal presentation by Zimman Monday brought fire from Mayor Ed Smith, but yesterday "his honor" said nothing. The vote stool: Zimman, Ringer, Ure and Towl, aye; Mayor Smith and Butler, nay. Falconer was absent. Dan Butler furnished the only heat of the morning when he declared he wanted more time to consider the bill and "wouldn't be stampeded by anybody who wants to inject politics in this thing." Butler said he didn't want to give the state railway commission power to regulate the rates, which authority the city now is fighting to hold. He argued that the bill would deny the city the benefits of competition in street lighting contracts and would transfer to a non-resident Concluding performances will be given tonight of the show at the Empress which is headed by the sketch "At the Turn-pike," an ultra-humorous episode. A pleasing bit of entertainment is offered by Minetti & Ridel, accordionists, who extract delightful music from their instruments. Laughable while thrilling, is the act presented by Ruster & Eddie, accobat comedians.

"Hip, Hip, Hooray," at the Gayety this week is especially fortunate in the selection of its feminine principals. Helen McClain, the prima donna, is now filling her fourth season with this show. Klitty Warren, a newcomer to this circuit, is endowed with looks and the ability to sing and dance and put over musical numbers. Marjorie Williams is an ingenue of exceptional taient. They all have important roles. There is a big chorus of pretty girls who are well drezzed and thoroughly versed in every department of chorus work. Ladies' matines at 2115 daily all week.
