Implied Threat of Railroad Tieup Rouses

London, Fcb. 10.-Mr. Lloyd George, the prime minister, today informed the Locomotive Engineers' and Firemen's union that its implied threat to bring on a general strike Great Britain over the shooting of railwaymen at Mallow, Ireland, last month, would not influence the government in considering the un-ion's demand for an investigation.

Mr. Lloyd George, in replying to-day, announced to Secretary Brom-ley of the union that it was the gov-ernment's intention of sending the Leeds resolution to Ireland for informative purposes.

The premier added, however, that he wished it stated at once that no threat of a national strike could be permitted to influence the action of the government on a matter of the administration of the law."

"The government," he continued "will consider the question phrely on its merit, without reference to these improper threats."
