New York Police Probe Will Rival Becker's Regime

New York, Feb. 11.—Disclosure of police scandal rivaling those of the days of Police Lieutenant Becker and the Herman Rosenthal murder, for which Becker and an East Side gunman's gang went to death in the electric chair, is forecast by former Governor Charles S. Whitman who, cloaked with authority by the district attorney, is probing into alleged grafting and corruption by New York city officials.

Disclosure of Scandals Worse Than Those Exposed by Rosenthal Are Promised by Whitman's Probe

The Whitman inquiry has been under way only a short time, since the state assembly was urged to order legislative investigation into New York City's administration early in January. Already two police captains have been indicted for alleged grafting, charged with accepting fees from business firms in exchange for police protection during strikes.

When money seemed to be lacking for continuation of the inquiry, financial assistance from private sources was promised the former governor, he announced, and a certified check for $20,000 was presented to him on January 21 by Edward Hatch, Jr., chairman of the New York Merchants' association committee on pollution, sewerage and water disposal.
