Omaha Kennel Club to Stage Open Dog Shows Each Month

At the third meeting of the newly organized Omaha Kennel club, at the city hall Thursday night, the board of directors, working under the direction of Mr. C. Peters, president, decided to admit new members at once so that the club could get on its feet and begin arranging for a local dog show. Dr. C. H. Hall asked the directors to consider cat enthusiasts eligible for membership.

Membership blanks are being mailed out to about 60 dog fanciers out in the state, and 250 owners and breeders of canines in Omaha. Plans for incorporating the club were submitted to the secretary. The annual dues were fixed at $3.

The Omaha Kennel club is going to stage an open house exhibition each month. Two or three competent lecturers will explain the merits of each kind of dog at all meetings in the future. Mr. J. C. Cook will exhibit his Boston Terrier at the next meeting, Dr. J. I. Warta will speak on the characteristics of Airedale, and Mrs. I. H. Moore will talk on the English Toy Spaniel and the Pekinese. A good authority is being lined up to give a brief discussion on the history of the dog.

The general public, and especially the Boy Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls are urged to attend these educational lectures.

Dog fanciers out in the state are urged to communicate with W. H. Harrison, secretary, at 560 Saunders-Kennedy building.

Joe Stecher Plays Basket Ball to Get in Condition for Matches

Joe Stecher's Dodge (Neb.) American Legion basket ball quintet snatched the Tys' team of the Sokol league of Omaha under a 44 to 2 score Thursday night at Turner hall before a large crowd of fans who trickled into the hall to catch a glimpse of the former heavyweight wrestling champion in action on the basket ball floor rather than see the game.

If the former champion's arm is still suffering from an attack of neuritis, the illness didn't seem to trouble the Dodge grappler last night, as he shot baskets from all angles of the floor.

Following the game, Stecher said that he was fast rounding into condition and that basket ball was assisting him a great deal in gradually recovering from his recent illness.

"I hope to be in condition to tackle Ed (Strangler) Lewis, or whoever the champion wrestler is, next season," remarked Joe as he flipped the ball through the hoop.
